JAMES L. MAYO... PROPRIETOR CARL GOERCH... EDITOR

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, JUNE 13, 1916.

Things to be grateful for: That the Greensboro baseball team don't make their habitat in Washington.

A headline that may appear in the papers any day: "Colonel Roosevelt leaves on long exploring trip!"

A hunter in Nevada left his home three months ago, looking for a bear. He has not been heard from since. His friends think that he must have found the bear.

The Vice-President has marshaled his forces for victory at St. Louis.—News and Views. We hardly suppose, however, that the will have a Major to lead them.

As an exponent of hot air, the Kaiser occupies the front row.—Greenville Reflector. With Roosevelt, Marion Butler et al. we suppose.

"What will the people think if Delany does not celebrate," anxiously queries the Bellhaven Journal. We'll probably think that they are still indulging in those exciting pastimes of checkers and dominoes.

To relieve the income tax on the Republican and Democratic conventions, we will have a fit longer news of the Mexican situation building out on the front pages of our dailies. There's nothing like variety after all.

In writing up a baseball game, the starting value of the Avondale Dispatch gives the startling information that "Boutwell" had right field for the "Reds." How strange it would have been if he had singled for a third batter!

THE END OF THE PROGRESSIVES.

The political movement as it changed last week heralded the end of the Progressives. They made a last desperate fight for life, but they are now beyond redemption and are bound to gradually slide down into oblivion. They are without a leader and without a purpose.

In their ranks, however, there are a number of promising men who do not desire to go down in ignominious defeat. They are therefore looking around for a means to save their reputation and keep up appearances before the public.

Insinuation of this was given in the news (Times) of yesterday. It was stated that the Progressives felt that it will be "Berlin vs. Washington" with Hughes favoring Berlin and Wilson Washington. For this reason, leaders of the Bell Movement passed out the information that the new party may turn and support Wilson.

There are three channels open to the Progressives: to name a candidate and make a fight of it; to unite with the Republicans or to join with the Democrats. The first would result in their defeat and the second would not bring them into favor again. The third is their only chance and that they are considering this chance seriously is evident in the statement regarding Hughes and Wilson. It is highly possible that the party will finally merge with the Democrats and in so doing will give President Wilson the greatest majority that has ever been given a president since the war between the states.

THE CHAUTAQUA PROBLEM.

At a meeting of the Chautauqua guarantors yesterday, it was found that the hundred guarantors would have to dig down into their pockets to make up a deficit of over $800 of the $1,000 guarantee. This made each guarantor's share $8. Of course most of the guarantors would have purchased two tickets anyway, so they are really only out on an average of about $4 apiece.

Nevertheless, the fact remains that only 300 tickets were sold to the citizens at large. The guarantors had to stand for considerably more than half the expense.

There's something wrong somewhere. Don't the people want the Chautauqua? Or don't they enjoy the kind of entertainment that is provided for them? Do they think that the price of the tickets is exorbitant? Should the guarantors buy money out of their own pockets in order to provide amusement which the people are evidently disinclined to pay for themselves?

The Chautauqua has been coming to Washington now for three years. There has been a deficit every year and the people have had to be literally begged to buy tickets. Public-spirited men have lost both money and much valuable time in the interest of the annual event. They have not even been thanked for the trouble they have taken. None of them received a penny for their work.

Should the state of affairs continue? Should these men be made to go to court, liable, taxable and expense every year for a purpose that does not meet with appreciation?

We believe that it has continued long enough and that a stop should be put to it.

The Chautauqua this year is a better proposition than it has ever presented in Washington. By the time of the closing performance, everyone should have decided whether they want it to come back again or not. We urge that the pledges be made out the same as before and that the citizens be given about a week's time to make up their minds whether they want to come or not. It might be advisable for the guarantors to appoint a committee to canvass the city and secure the pledges. Then, if sufficient funds are pledged to cover the guarantee—allowing a liberal margin for those who may repudiate their promises—let's have the Chautauqua again. But if the people do not respond as liberally as they should, and if the guarantee is not raised immediately after the present Chautauqua is over with, we do not feel that it is either just nor fair to bring the Chautauqua here again next year.

BEAUFORT CO. REPUBLICANS

Hold Their Nominating Convention in Washington, N. C. July 4, 1916. A New Declaration of Independence, Says Chairman Paul.

By order of Republican County Executive Committee, the Republican convention is called to meet in Washington July 4 at 11 o'clock for the purpose of nominating a county ticket and candidate for House of Representatives and such other business as may come before the convention. The precinct committee will call the Republicans in their precincts together and elect their delegates to the county convention.

The precinct committee will hold their primary Saturday, June 31st, at 11 o'clock, except Belhaven, Washington Park and the four wards in Washington. These will hold their primaries on Friday night, June 30th. The Hon. Frank A. Linney, Republican nominee for Governor, is expected to be with us July 4. Mr. Linney has no superior in North Carolina as a debater. Every voter in Beaufort county should hear him.

SUFFRAGISTS ARRIVING AT ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, June 13.—Women suffragists began pouring into St. Louis today, bringing the argument that the Democratic National Convention should take advantage of the failure of the Republicans to endorse suffrage by constitutional amendment, insert a full-fledged equal rights plank in the Democratic platform and thereby capture the large woman vote in the suffrage states.

An Ideal Remedy For Nursing Mothers

Compound of Simple Laxative Herbs Safe for Baby and Mother.

Constipation is a condition that affects the old, young and middle-aged, and most people at one time or another need help in regulating the action of the bowels. Harsh cathartics and purgatives should not be employed to relieve constipation, as their effect is only temporary while they shock the system unnecessarily.

A remedy that can be used with perfect safety for the tiniest babe and that is equally effective for the strongest constitution is found in the combination of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores everywhere for fifty cents a bottle. This is an ideal household remedy and should be in every family medicine chest.

Mrs. F. I. Barsolow, 18 Leslie St., Holyoke, Mass., wrote to Dr. Caldwell, "Syrup Pepsin certainly is fine. I gave it to my baby, Evelyn, and also took it myself. It is the only medicine I have been able to take without affecting baby in the nursing. I have used it for all four children and it is fine; they like it and ask for it."

A trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 494 Washington Street, Monticello, Ill.

GERMANS SHELL YPRES LINE

London, June 13.—The British official statement issued at midnight reads:

"Since last night the Ypres salient has again been the chief scene of activity. On the southern portion, from Hill 60 to a point about 500 yards north, the Germans shelled our trenches heavily for about three hours this afternoon. The bombardment was preceded in the morning by the shelling of Ypres."

"There were no infantry actions during the day beyond an attempt by Germans to rush one of our blocking posts in Sanctuary wood. This was repulsed."

NEW PERFECTION

"I SAVE TIME in my COOKING!"

"THE TOUCH of a lighted match gives full heat on the instant and the flame 'stays put' when it's regulated. It turns on and off like a gas stove!"

The New Perfection Oil Cook Stove, the stove with the long blue chimney, is built to save time.

The long blue chimney gives a perfect draft, and assures a clean, even heat and a lasting satisfaction.
