BELIEVED CARRANZA FORCED TO DO AS BID

CLAIMED THAT HE CANNOT YIELD TO U. S. WITHOUT BEING DEPOSED BY HIS ARMY CHIEFS.

WOULD MEET MADERO'S FATE

Border Is Convinced That War Is Inevitable. General Pershing Has Moved His Base From Naniquipa to Another Point.

(By United Press) El Paso, June 26.—The border is convinced that war is inevitable. Considerable interest is being centered on General Pershing's change of base from Naniquipa to Elvalle and Carranza's reply to the President's note yesterday. It is believed that Carranza cannot yield without being deposed by his army chiefs. Should he concede to the demands of the United States, it is believed that he would meet the fate of Madero.

When the American troops encamped at Espla, Mexico, they took possession of this old adobe ranch house punched portholes in its walls and occupied it as a fort.

U. S. WILL NOW WAIT ON THE REPLY CARRANZA MAKES

(By United Press) Washington, June 26.—Congressional leaders today declared that they believe war is certain. Chairman Flood, of the House foreign relations committee, holds this view and he told as much to his colleagues. Congress expects President Wilson to address a joint session when Carranza replies to yesterday's demand of the administration to explain Mexico's attitude. Only a complete change in policy and actions on the part of the de facto government can avoid war. Officials believe reports from the border that Carranza would face a revolt of his military organizations if he changes his present belligerent attitude.
