NEW MEXICAN NOTE WILL HELP RELIEVE SITUATION

Mexico City, June 30.—The foreign office has practically completed the reply to the last American note and it may be published within a few hours. It is generally believed that it will be of a pacificatory nature and relieve the possibility of war. In fact, the people here never seem to have had any fear of war and Trevino's report that Pershing has evacuated Namiqipa, has generally been taken as an indication that peaceful and quiet relations between the two countries will soon be reestablished. The public here does not yet know that the Chihuahua prisoners have been released.

ARMY OFFICERS W'LCOME DELAY AND "STOCK UP"

THE LONGER UNITED STATES "MARKS TIME," THE BETTER EQUIPPED ARMY WILL BE. SUPPLIES BEING ORDERED

Bids Will Be Opened Tomorrow for Food for Soldiers. Payroll is Close to Two Million Dollars Monthly and is Increasing.

(By United Press) San Antonio, June 30.—Army officers welcomed the delay occasioned by further negotiations with Carranza. They state that the longer the United States government "marks time," the better the American forces will be prepared in the event of hostilities, while Mexico will enjoy no corresponding benefit.

A few more days will see the distribution of several thousand guardsmen all along the border and the releasing of 25,000 regulars for active service. The delay also permits the concentration of a large supply of foodstuffs, munitions, mobilization of transport facilities and the rehabilitation of aviation corps.

The Quartermaster department will open bids tomorrow for the furnishing of 180,000 pounds of beans, 150,000 cans of tomatoes, 120,000 pounds of coffee, 450,000 pounds of sugar, 80,000 pounds of rice, 45,000 pounds of prunes, 20,000 pounds of evaporated peaches, 50,000 cans of jam, 50,000 pounds of tobacco, 100,000 pounds of salt. Animal forage is costing $270,000 monthly, gasoline $45,000 and officers' and men's pay roll amounts to $1,800,000 monthly. The continued arrival of the militia is greatly increasing this.

AMERICAN FORGES BEGIN RETIREMENT NORTHWARD

Mexico City, June 30.—General Trevino, commanding the de facto government forces in Chihuahua, informed the war department by telegraph today that the American troops had commenced a retirement northward and had abandoned the towns of San Buena Ventura, Las Cruces, Namiqipa and Santa Clara. These places, he added, were immediately occupied by his forces.

General Trevino also advised the war department that the Villa generals, Marcos Carabelo, Juan Cabral and Ramon Sousa had been permitted to enter the de facto government's territory, coming from the United States.

Minister of War Obregon today instructed General Trevino, the Mexican commander at Chihuahua, to inform Consul Gable at El Paso that no impediment would be placed in the way of the American authorities if they desired to remove the bodies of the American troopers killed at Carrizal to American territory for burial.

Packing Plant Holds Forth Big Possibilities. Local Men Are Investigating

Plant At Moultrie, Ga., Has Made That Section Rich And Prosperous. Washington Men Believe Same Can Be Done Here.

A number of local business men, interested in the prospects for a packing plant in Washington, are planning to visit Moultrie, Ga., in the near future, for the purpose of seeing the developments that have taken place there. The Moultrie packing house is one of the most successful in the South and has been of immense benefit in developing the surrounding section.

A letter was received this morning by Capt. George T. Leach from E. T. Lamb, president of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railway Company, regarding the Moultrie plant. Mr. Lamb was formerly president of the Norfolk Southern and is well known in Washington.

He states that the present capacity of the packing house of the Georgia town is 500 hogs and 50 head of cattle, the capacity being based on the cold storage and not on the machinery for killing. By increasing the storage capacity, Mr. Lamb states, they could handle with the present machinery about 1,000 hogs a day. They have killed practically their full capacity of hogs for the past six months, and were not able to take all they were offered. The plant—from a financial view—is a big success in a dis-paying big dividends.

The initial cost of the plant at Moultrie was $100,000. From every direction around the city, those who have hogs are taking them to the Moultrie Packing Company and selling them for spot cash at the market price as quoted in Chicago, and the farmers who have no hogs or cattle are preparing to turn their cottonfields into grazing lands for the purpose of raising something that is as "good as gold." The European war has taught them that cotton is not always king. The Moultrie Packing Company has shown them that stock raising pays better than cotton, and is more reliable as a cash asset.

For some years past, the farmers of Georgia have been advised to "raise more corn." "Why?" they would say. "To feed to your cattle and hogs," they would be told. "But why raise cattle and hogs?" would come the counter question. That question has been answered by the Moultrie packing plant, and as that section around Colquitt county has been transformed into a live and paying market for stock, so can every other section of the South be made to feel prosperity that is sure to spring from a ready cash market for every pound of pork and beef that can be raised.

The Moultrie plant is creating a market for hogs and cattle in a territory of a hundred miles around Colquitt county. It is drawing from counties in Alabama, and large shipments have been made from such towns as Dotham, Enterprise and Ashford. It has invaded Florida and many carloads have been shipped from that state. From Montezuma on the north to Quitman on the south, in Georgia, the people have caught the fever and are shipping all their hogs and cattle to Moultrie.

With something with which to demand the cash and with an incentive to raise something else besides cotton, the people around Moultrie have quit talking about business depression. Everybody is looking pleased and happy and all are optimistic on the financial question. Fields are being sown in grain and clover, cattle and hogs will be raised there, even larger numbers. New houses are under construction, the

Brave Mother's Laugh Save the Lives of Children

El Paso, Tex., June 30.—An American mother with her four babies fought her way through a band of Mexican bandits to safety north of the border. The desperadoes took the woman's children from her and threatened to kill them before her eyes.

The fact that she laughed at threats saved their lives and her own. The Mexicans robbed her of gold and jewels aggregating more than $1,000, and dashed into the mountains. Mrs. William G. Hoyt is the woman. She is the wife of a wealthy ranchman living fifteen miles south of Cananea. She arrived in El Paso with her children today on the way to her parents' home at Hoxton, Kan. Here is her thrilling story:

"Five American families around Cananea have been reported killed by Mexicans recently. My husband was away and I thought it best to go to the border. The Sonora Railroad is in the hands of Mexicans whom I feared, so I started out in an automobile with my children. The route I chose avoided Cananea, which is filled with hostile Carranzistas, but followed the railroad.

"Within about ten miles of Douglas, on the Mexican side, the bandits loomed up suddenly out of the sand hills and surrounded us. "Que tiene?" (What have you got?) they shouted. I put on full speed, but they closed in on me and snatched Juanita, my little girl, out of the tonneau. I stopped. They grabbed the other three children. They held them up before me with knives at their throats.

"I felt like screaming, but had I done so, they would have killed them and me, sure. That's the Mexican nature. I steeled my heart and laughed at them. They searched the car and took my diamonds and money. They gave me $50 in Villa paper currency in exchange telling me it would be good some day, then galloped away. Fortunately, they overlooked the baby's bank, which contained $40. It was with this we came on to El Paso from Douglas."

Petrograd, June 30.—The Germans have begun a series of sudden and violent attacks against General Kuropatkin's entire front, from Riga to Dvinsk. It is believed that Von Hindenburg is launching a new offensive in order to divert the Russians from the Galacian front.

The resolution was offered to the Foreign Relations Committee, where Chairman Stone promised that it would be considered at the next meeting.

LANSING URGES MEXICO TO HURRY UP WITH NOTE

(By United Press) Washington, June 29.—Secretary Lansing has asked Mexican Ambassador Arrandondo to speed along Carranza's reply to the last American note. Lansing told Arrandondo frankly that the patience of this government in the matter is about exhausted. He pointed out that the administration originally asked for an "immediate" answer, whereas several days have elapsed and all that this government has had is "expectation" of Consul Rodgers as to the early delivery of the message. Lansing believed this morning that he would get a reply from Arrandondo, but the latter visited him without it. Indications, following the conference, were that Carranza will send the answer through Arrandondo.

FRENCH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACKS

(By United Press) Paris, June 30.—The Germans have shifted their attack to the west bank of the Meuse, between Avoncourt and Hill 304. All attacks have been repulsed, the French war office claims.

HUGHES AND TAFT CONFERRED TODAY

(By United Press) Binghamton, N. Y., June 30.—Hughes and Taft held a two-hour campaign conference here today and heal the wounds caused by the Taft-Roosevelt breach.

VILLA BANDITS JOIN FORCES OF CARRANZA

Washington, June 30.—Army and navy officials received definite information today that all elements in Mexico, including Villistas, are combining with Carranza. Bandit organizations along the borders, reports to the War Department state, are acting in unison with Carranza. It is understood that Admiral Winslow, on the west coast, has similar information.

These facts indicate to officials here that Mexico may create an army of 100,000. Experts believe militiamen will be kept on the jump along 1,500 miles of border from the time hostilities begin.

TOBACCO IS BEING CURED

Greenville, N. C., June 30.—John Vincent, of this city, reports that he saw the first barn of tobacco being cured yesterday in the Chocowiny section. Heat had already been applied, and before long the darkies will be gathering around the grading benches saying, "Baccor, baccor take baccor." Which reminds us that the opening of the market is only a matter of about six weeks, when the wheels of trade and business will be quickened by the grease of the lucre of the land. The crop now seems to be very poor, as a general rule, but there is still a chance for it to improve.

CHICAGO PACKERS GET BIG ARMY CONTRACTS

Chicago, June 30.—Chicago packing houses have closed contracts with the army quartermaster here for a monthly supply of 1,500,000 pounds of meat. Most of the meat is to be shipped to Fort Sam Houston and El Paso.

Half a million pounds of corn beef, packed in two-pound cans, is to be sent at once to San Antonio, according to another order. An order for $40,000 pounds of bacon as emergency rationals, went to another firm.

ALL IS HARMONY IN REPUBLICAN AFFAIRS NOW

DINNER AT HOTEL ASTOR MINDS BREACH BETWEEN REPUBLICANS AND BULL MOOSE.

TEDDY TO TAKE STUMP

Will Take an Active Part in the Campaign for Hughes. "We Are in Complete Accord," Hughes States to Reporters.

New York, June 30.—As a result of the Roosevelt-Hughes harmony dinner at the Hotel Astor Wednesday night, Colonel Roosevelt has announced that with the opening of the fall campaign he will take the stump for the Republican candidate.

The Colonel plans to make four or five speeches at such times and places as Mr. Hughes and his campaign manager indicate. It is believed the first will be made at a great rally in Madison Square Garden, at which not only Colonel Roosevelt, but ex-President Taft and Mr. Hughes as well, will be present.

Harmony prevades, following the epoch-making dinner which cemented the reunion of the Republicans and the Progressives. Colonel Roosevelt is all smiles. Mr. Hughes beams his satisfaction. Mr. Hughes said today:

"I am very much pleased with Colonel Roosevelt's letter of endorsement, and he has expressed himself in a very kindly way with respect to my telegram to the Progressive committee.

"I wanted to talk to Colonel Roosevelt fully with respect to the issues of the campaign and asked him to dine with me so that we might have that opportunity. He dined with me, and we had a very delightful interview. We talked very fully on all matters and are in complete accord. The evening has been a very pleasant one."

Roosevelt said today to a reporter that he had had a most satisfactory talk with Mr. Hughes and was really very greatly pleased.

The Colonel said he most heartily agreed with the attitude Mr. Hughes takes toward the great questions that are up for issue, and assured him he would support him with the utmost heartiness.

Colonel Roosevelt said he and Mr. Hughes had spent between two and three hours in talking over the issues of the campaign, which, he said, is another way of saying the vital issues affecting the national interests and national honor today.

Mr. Hughes, the Colonel said, stated he much desired his aid in the campaign, to which Mr. Roosevelt replied that he certainly would have it. Thereupon it was agreed that the Colonel would make stump speeches.
