U-BOAT HAS HARD PROBLEM AHEAD

HOW THE DEUTSCHLAND WILL RUN THE ALLIED BLOCKADE OFF COAST REMAINS A DEEP MYSTERY.

KOENIG IS MADE MUCH OF

Neutrality in Baltimore Unofficially Gave to Sen. Elks Elect Submarine Captain Full-Fledged Member of the Boston Lodge.

(By United Press)

Washington, July 12.—The United States will watch carefully any action of the allies against the Deutschland, officials stated here today. The stand which the United States will take in the event of attack, is causing much thought and discussion. The presence or the non-presence of Americans on board the craft will be the greatest factor. The presence of Americans would be the one condition on which the United States could base its protests in the event of an attack. However, even the presence of citizens of the United States would not make the Deutschland immune from attack, if the commander did not strictly adhere to the rules of visit and search.

Deutschland Starts Loading. Baltimore, July 12.—Just how the Deutschland intends to dodge the allied patrol is the deepest mystery. She will be empty tomorrow and will immediately begin the reloading of precious nicks and rubber. Plans have been announced for a brief stay in Norfolk. The craft will probably submerge at night, remaining deep below the surface. The attempt to start the run without even the use of the periscope shows Captain Koenig to be a real hero. Neutrality has unofficially gone to smash here. The Elks' convention here has made him a full-fledged member of the Boston lodge. German ambassador Bernstorff comes here tomorrow.

LOYAL KNIGHTS OF KING DAVID ARE MEETING HERE

Many Delegates of Colored Fraternal Association Are Meeting in Washington. Opening Session Last Night.

Over 100 delegates of the Loyal Knights of King David, a colored fraternal organization, are meeting in Washington. The opening session was held in the C. M. E. Church last night. The meeting will continue until Sunday.

An excellent program of addresses, songs and recitations was rendered last night. E. L. Stewart made the principal address of the evening, being invited to do so by the committee of arrangements. Mr. Stewart received the closest of attention and his address made a deep impression upon his hearers. Immediately upon the conclusion of his remarks a soprano solo, "If I had a thousand lives to live, I'd live them all for you," was rendered.

MODESTY FORBIDS OUR PUTTING ANY LARGER HEADLINES OVER THIS ARTICLE

We doff our hat to Messrs. Mayo and Goersch down there on the Washington Daily News for they have just placed an order for a Duplex flat bed newspaper press. It prints from rolls of paper, flat bed forms and eight page capacity for printing, with a delivery speed of something like 4,000 an hour. The News is a good paper, in a good town, and it is right out there in the front of the march for progress and the work for a greater and better Washington. Less than twelve months ago they materially improved their equipment in the purchase of the Journal at New Bern outfit upon the closing down of that paper. Better things had gotten into the folks at the News office, however, and they didn't halt there but went right out after a telegraph service, then an illustrated news service and now the big modern newspaper press. We repeat Washington is a good town and one of the best things in Washington is the News.—Rocky Mount Telegram.

SPARROW IS NEW PRESIDENT OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Annual Meeting Held Last Night. Important Matters, Relative to Road Work, Brought up.

At the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, J. B. Sparrow, cashier of the Savings & Trust Co., was elected president of the organization for the ensuing year. Mr. Sparrow was unanimously elected. In taking the chair, he made a brief speech, in which he stated that he would do all in his power to advance the interests of the Chamber of Commerce and the city of Washington, but that he would have to rely largely upon the members and the citizens as a whole for assistance.

The complete ticket of new officers elected is as follows: President, J. B. Sparrow. 1st Vice-Pres., W. H. Ellison. 2nd Vice-Pres., B. G. Moss. Treasurer, J. G. Bragaw, Jr. Secretary, C. A. Flynn. Chairman Executive Committee, F. C. Kugler. Mr. Kugler will appoint his associates and these in turn will name the various standing committees of the Chamber.

A discussion of the road work took up a large part of the meeting. The committee, which had been appointed to make a report on the work being done on the Market street road, stated that, all things being taken into consideration, the work was progressing as rapidly as could be hoped for. They also stated that the township is getting its full money's worth in the labor that was being done.

With reference to the Red Hill road, W. E. Swindell stated that he understood that the $1,500 which is to be spent this fall in putting the road in temporary good condition, would be a part of the county fund, and not a part of the money that had been appropriated for concreting the road or making the improvements on the other end. Mr. Swindell also said that as far as he was able to say, the county would stand by its original offer for appropriating to the improvement of the road, even if it was not undertaken until next year.

Upon motion of E. L. Stewart, the following was carried: "That a committee be appointed for the purpose of seeing the signers on the subscription list on the Red Hill road fund, laying the matter before them and getting their O. K. to the proposition and that the committee be then instructed to secure a bond, which is to be binding only if the present board is intact and the work is done."

Captain Leach appointed on this committee, Messrs. Stewart, Ellison and Berry.

GERMANS EAGER TO RESUME THE SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN

OVERTHROW OF BETHSMAN HOLLOWAY'S POLICY IS PREDICTED BY THE SUPPORTERS OF VON TIRPITZ

WANT WILSON TO TAKE ACTION

Said That Former U-Boat Campaign Will Be Resumed Unless the President Takes Some Steps Toward Making England Lift Blockade.

(By United Press)

Berlin, July 12.—The overthrow of Chancellor Von Bethsmann-Hollweg, champion of Germany's conciliatory attitude toward America, and the loosening of German submarines within three months, is predicted by Von Tirpitz supporters, unless President Wilson takes some action against the British blockade. From private sources, close to the foreign office, it was said that "unless America does something against England within three months, there will be a bitter fight against the chancellor. It is impossible to tell whether he could withstand such powerful opposition."

In spite of this, however, Americans believe that the chancellor will emerge victorious. There is an opinion but that the feeling, in favor of a vigorous submarine campaign is becoming stronger.

BOB HANDY WRITES OF LIFE AT CAMP GLENN

Camp Glenn, Morehead City, N. C., July 11, 1916.

Editor Daily News:

Being down here at Camp Glenn, Morehead City, where I have spent several days, I thought perhaps a few lines in regard to the camp life here of the North Carolina troops would possibly be of interest to the readers of your paper. Having seen recently a few articles in different state papers as to the fare and care of the troops in camp, the impression might be created among those who are not familiar with the true facts that the men are not faring well. These articles, which are entirely without any foundation whatever, usually come from the pen of some soldier who has been discharged from the service for some cause or has become dissatisfied because he is not allowed every privilege that a private citizen has. And then there are those citizens in private life who have never had any military experience, who have visited camp on Sundays and not seeing chicken, ice cream and numerous other delicacies on the tables arrive at the conclusion that the men are not receiving the proper quantity or quality of food. As I have stated these disgruntled people may have left the wrong impression and such false statements will have a tendency to retard the recruiting of men for the regiments which are now in camp.

For the sake of those readers who are unfamiliar with army life, and every man who has ever served with the colors will bear me out in this, I wish to state that the quality of food furnished the troops, if of the very best and the quantity entirely sufficient for the heartiest of eaters. In an interview with Capt. F. L. Block, quartermaster of the 5th Infantry, and who by the way is considered one of the most capable officers in this department in the guard having time and again been highly complimented by the war department for his efficiency, I am able to give to the public the articles of food which compose the army ration issue and also know from personal experience that the issue is entirely sufficient for anyone. The issue is as follows: Beef, bacon, bread, meal, potatoes, onions, canned tomatoes, rice, hominy, dried peaches, dried apples, prunes, jam, syrup, beans, coffee, sugar, milk, butter, lard, salt, pepper, vinegar and ice. I have in person visited most of the mess halls at meal hours and have seen with my own eyes that the men had plenty to eat and that it was clean and properly prepared. I have not heard of any soldier complaining of his food or treatment. On the contrary the

Villa, "Back In Saddle," Declares New Border War

Bandit Says He Intends Marching Northward and Renew Attacks on American Towns.

El Paso, Tex., July 12.—General Villa, from his stronghold in the Parral district, has issued a proclamation announcing that he has recovered his weapons and is again "in the saddle."

The bandit declares he intends marching northward and will renew his attacks on American border towns.

Proceeding this proclamation, one was issued by General Beltram, Villa's former chief-of-staff, urging "all loyal Mexicans"—meaning Villistas—to join the bandit "in his war on the traitor Carranza and his fight to uphold the honor of Mexico."

It was by Beltram's order that Edward Bean, an American engineer, was executed several months ago in the interior.

Both proclamations have been spread broadcast throughout Central Mexico. As a result intense nervousness is spreading in the Carranzista ranks.

Peñas, who idolize Villa, have seized and looted Cuatro Ciemezas, Coahuila, Carranza's birthplace, and it is reported are hurrying by the thousands to join Villa's band.

The bandit still is encamped between Jimenez and Parral, according to reports. Beltram, with several hundred Villistas, is encamped south of Parral.

General Francisco Gonzales, the Carranza commander at Juarez, today advised General George Bell, Jr., that the Villistas are branding Mexicans who refuse to join them by cutting off the top of one of their ears.

SECOND SUBMARINE BOUND FOR AMERICA, IS ALREADY AT SEA

(By United Press)

Baltimore, July 12.—The Bremen, sister ship of the submarine Deutschland, is now at sea, the United Press learned officially today. She left Bremerhaven a few days ago, and will be here within two weeks. Her place of docking on this side is being kept a secret.

RESIDENT OF OCRACOKE OPPOSED TO THE FISH LAW

Lindsay Warren Says That Islanders Are Very Bitter Against New Law. Works Decided Hardship Upon Them.

"I have never seen a whole community so opposed and hostile to any law, as are the people of Ocracoke Island to the present fish law," said Lindsay C. Warren of this city, one of the democratic nominees from this district for the next State Senate, who returned from Ocracoke Monday night.

"The people of Ocracoke are wondering where Gov. Craig obtained his information when he issued his statement several weeks ago, saying that conditions are satisfactory in that section, and that the people are satisfied with the law," said Mr. Warren.

Mr. Warren said that he talked to a large number of fishermen on the island, and that all of them are very bitter against the law that works such a decided hardship on them. He said that while the fish law had hurt the majority party, the people, who have been almost solid in the democratic faith, were still looking to that party to remedy this injurious condition in the next General Assembly, and that he believed that it would be one of the big questions in the next Legislature.

Mr. Warren stated that while at Ocracoke, he studied the fish question and made quite an investigation of conditions, and that he has yet to hear a single man on the island say that he is in favor of the present statute.

GERMANS LOSING GROUND STEADILY

ANGLO-FRENCH STEAM ROLLER SUBGES STEADILY ONWARD DRIVING BACK THE GERMANS.

TEUTONS NOT DISCOURAGED

In Spite of Losses, Both Public and Army Are in Best of Spirits. Advances to the Contrary Have Been Largely Sent Out for Effect.

(By United Press)

London, July 12.—The Germans are fighting with the greatest bravery in the vicinity of the Somme river and are stubbornly contesting every inch of ground.

Although they are unable to halt the offensive of the allies, there is no indication of their being downhearted or willing to concede defeat.

For the last several days, the censor has been passing dispatches of a most pessimistic nature, intimating that the army and the public are discouraged. It is believed here that these were purposely passed to mislead the allies.

The United Press Berlin dispatches report the German army and the public in good spirits, which is corroborated by reliable private advice. Therefore the allies intend to continue their offensive carefully and methodically, in view of the possibility of the Germans attempting to conceal special preparations. This same methodical advance continues on the Russian front.

A party of Irish fusiliers penetrated the German trenches at a strongly-held position near Loos. They remained there for twenty minutes, killing many. They then retired with only eight loads. The Germans have gained some ground between Namet and the Trones woods.

Allies Moving Forward. Paris, July 12.—The allies' great steam roller is moving eastward through the German lines on schedule time. Last night's lull on the Somme front was scheduled just as every other steam roller must pause to re-coal. The Anglo-French are now preparing for another new infantry rush.
