WILSON GIVEN NOISY GREETING IN KENTUCKY

CROWDS GATHER AT EVERY STATION ON ROUTE TO LINCOLN'S BIRTHPLACE.

LINCOLN'S CABIN IS BOUGHT BY GOVERNMENT

(By United Press.)
Hodgenville, Ky., Sept. 4.—The birthplace of Abraham Lincoln was today added to the treasures of the United States government when President Wilson received the deed. An endowment of $100,000 had been provided for its maintenance.

Standing before the historic cabin, President Wilson spoke of Lincoln as the embodiment of vitality and democracy.

WILSON GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 4.—After day and night ovations and demonstrations by crowds led by bands, who cheered President Wilson's passage through the various cities, Louisville presented the climax of greetings when the presidential train steamed over the bridge and entered the station here.

The ovation developed into a deafening roar of shrieking callioles, playing "My Old Kentucky Home," the whistle of assembled river steamships and the blare of a score of bands.

All along the route, crowds waited for a glimpse of the President. He was lustily cheered all along the line.

WILL INSIST ON KEEPING 8-HR. LAW IN EFFECT

BROTHERHOODS DECLARE THEY WILL STRIKE IF THEY HAVE TO GO BACK TO 10 HOURS

RAILROADS WILL FIGHT

(By United Press.)
Washington, Sept. 4.—A lingering air of warfare still clings around the railroad brotherhood's headquarters, although they are reasonably confident that the eight-hour bill, now a law, means at least a year's peace on all rail lines.

The more optimistic say that the wage commission, created by the bill will find the men's cause to be a just one. In this event, they say that the railroads are scarcely likely to overturn the law as unconstitutional.

SEPTEMBER

(By Mrs. W. G. Williams)
Beautiful skies in early dawn
With soft rose hues, sun kissed
The birds sweet notes thrilling
Through all the dewy mists.

Beautiful wood of tangles
Stretch out their arms to me,
From all this hum-drum duty
I would that I were free.

Beautiful fields of gold,
Abundant harvests everywhere,
Lead my feet through wonder-land,
Glad some season of the year.

RESEMBLANCE

"When my dog bays for a bone he reminds me of a political orator asking proposed questions."
"How so?"
"Because he bays for a reply."

HIGH PRICES PAID ON THE LOCAL MARKET

While there was not such a large quantity of tobacco disposed of on the local market this morning, prices were higher than they have been at any time during the last ten days, and were as high as the opening sale.

SHELBURNE WRITES

Our market opened this morning with prices higher than they have been for the past ten days, and every buyer here buying and anxious for tobacco. Some sales made today were as follows:

J. H. Barr, load of 1 lbs, 16 1-2, 18 1-2, 19, 19, 22. Ave. $18.
Feneur Norris, load of 1 lbs, 18 1-2, 21 1-2, 21 1-2. Ave. $20.25.
H. K. Cutler, 19 1-2, 24 1-2, 25, 30, 36, 41. Ave. $31.50.
W. H. Angle, 20, 21 1-2, 23 1-2, 26, 29, 38. Ave. $24.10.

A report has been circulated by a larger market that Washington would have no more sales this year on account of the railroad strike.

The strike has been settled but if it had not been settled Washington would have taken care of her tobacco, as we have a larger redrying capacity here than we sell tobacco, and all tobacco would have been dried and stored here.

As I have said tobacco is high and I can please anyone who brings me news, if having the finest auctioneer in the business, and getting top prices can do it.

Yours truly,
V. B. SHELBURNE
