

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

OFFERS EYE TO GIVE SOLDIER FIANCE SIGHT

Paris, Oct. 4.—Members of the Academy of Medicine are debating whether they are justified in accepting the offer of a young girl to sacrifice one of her eyes to restore sight to her blind soldier lover.

The offer was made following the publication of a statement from a leading oculist, Dr. Rochon-Duvigneau, that science had progressed to the stage where it was possible to graft a small piece of the human cornea on another cornea, and thereby perhaps confer partial sight. The girl writes:

"I should be proud to serve my country by the gift of an eye if you entertain the slightest hope that sight could be restored to my fiancee." Dr. Duvigneau had advised that the offer be rejected.

Like getting back home for Thanksgiving—they satisfy!

Thanksgiving with the old folks at home—it does satisfy! For your smoking, Chesterfields do the same thing—they satisfy!

But Chesterfields are MILD, too—that's the wonder of it.

Don't expect this new cigarette enjoyment (satisfy, yet mild) from any cigarette but Chesterfields, because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend—an entirely new combination of tobaccos and the biggest discovery in cigarette making in 20 years.

AMERICANS IN ENGLAND HAVE TO PROVE IDENTITY

Are Being Roped in as "Slackers." Having a Hard Time of it.

By WILBUR S. FORREST (United Press Staff Correspondent) London, Sept. 19.—(By Mail)—American men of military age who come to England just now had better bring along their birth certificates. They will need them and more to convince the British authorities they are not super slackers. The super slackers—men who have failed to register under the military conscription act—are daily falling into the net which the war office has set for them. Americans are being netted in almost every haul. If they fail to have the documentary evidence handy they are liable to remain "guests" of the London police until someone in Ambassador Page's embassy can look up the records.

When a crowded tube train arrived at its terminus a few days ago, the male passengers were herded into a big enclosure. Two men who had evaded conscription wept. Others hastily sent for their wives and the necessary papers. An American newspaperman, whose name is well known to readers of a big New York paper, was in the "catch." He proved his identity when the opportunity arose and was freed. The authorities however, led a score of men off to the district police station where they spent the night. More than half were super slackers.

The raid system is only a part of the big campaign to rope in the military shirkers. Careful examination registration cards held by all aliens is going forward. The Americans, as well as Dutch, Spanish, Swiss, Argentinians and other neutrals are required to show why they are not serving in the British army. They answer that they are neutral. The swift reply is "Prove it." Here's how one American proved it.

The mail brought a document requesting him to appear at a big recruiting office Sept. 2 to join "His Majesty's Forces." The American wrote the recruiting officer that he was an American citizen and therefore exempt. Twelve hours later, back came the officers' answer: "Prove it." The American mailed his passport, issued by the State Department at Washington and enclosed a courteous note suggesting that this "should eliminate all doubt." The passport got lost in the mail. September 2 was drawing near and three days later there was no word from the recruiting officer. This meant that a pair of soldiers would probably appear soon at the American's doorstep and take him along as a super slacker. He called the officer on the telephone. "I've sent you my passport; isn't that proof enough?" he queried.

"Makes no difference," was the reply, "you may be an American all right, but you'll have to prove it."

So the American proved it by having the American embassy write the recruiting officer a letter. Then the recruiter apologized.

It is one of the many narrow escapes from khaki that Americans are having just now.

LATHAM URGES FARMERS TO HAVE EXHIBITION READY

(By J. F. LATHAM) To the Farmers of Beaufort County: The North Carolina Great State Fair will be on October 16 to 21. Beaufort county MUST do itself proud at this exposition. It cannot be done without the cooperative activities of the farmers of our county. Our resources and possibilities demand that we take first place in this contest of counties for best display of field and garden crops at the great State fair. We need the aid, assistance, help and cooperation of every farmer, merchant, business man and banker in the county to help us pull this county's exhibition off in great shape. WILL YOU HELP US?

Get busy right NOW. The car carrying our display must leave Washington Wednesday, October 11. We want this exhibit to carry in it specimens of every type of our soil and every type and variety of field and garden crops. We want to show good specimens of every variety of corn. Every variety of cotton, tobacco, peanuts, potatoes, soy beans, cow peas, clover and all the grasses, hay and pasture; every variety of hay—peanut, soy bean, cow pea with and without grass mixtures, alfalfa, crimson clover and any other cultivated field plant; also specimens of all garden plants of whatsoever kind, fruits and flowers.

Ladies, please send some flowers to decorate our booth; send old Beaufort off in-blooming, good shape. We want the largest ham, the largest midding and shoulder of meat that can be found in the county; also can of lard. We cannot exhibit any live stock or poultry, but we do want a nice large fat hen well dressed and a nice large fat well dressed turkey; also a nice well dressed 40-lb. pig. We want to show this pig standing in a nest of soy beans with ear of corn in its mouth. The pig and poultry can be taken to the fair in our car alive, and at the proper time dressed and put on exhibition, so that it would not spoil but could be sold at the close of the fair and the farmer sending it would sustain no loss.

Mr. Farmer, please do not be indifferent about this matter, but bet get within yourself that amount of civic pride for community uplift—that will cause you to go into your field to select an exhibit of the best of whatever you are growing, for this great occasion and thus you will be helping to put your county at the head of the list, agriculturally, in North Carolina. In selecting your exhibit be careful about truthness to type and uniformity of display; that is to say select 10 ears of corn, each ear looking just like all the others as near as you possibly can and you will have a good exhibit no matter what variety it may be.

Corn Exhibit to be—10 ears and three stalks with ears attached.

Cotton—3 stalks with bolls attached.

Tobacco—2 lbs. wrappers; 2 lbs. cutters; 2 lbs. fillers.

Soy Beans—3 stalks beans attached; 1 pk. clean seed.

Cow Peas—1 pk. clean seed every variety.

Potatoes—1/2 bu. seed, every variety; 1/2 bu. Irish, every variety, new and old crop.

Peanuts—1 pk. clean nuts and 3 vines, every variety.

Garden Crops—1 large collard, bunch of turnips, bunch of rutabagas, bunch of onions, any and all grades crop not here mentioned.

Baled Hay not less than 50 lbs.—Alfalfa, crimson clover, crimson clover and oats, soy beans alone, soy bean and grass mixtures, cow peas, cow pea and grass, red clover and orchard grass, sudan and any other good hay.

Please take enough of your time to select whatever you may have and send it to me at Washington in time for me to receive it not later than Monday, October 9. The freight will be paid here. Be a booster instead of a knocker.
