There's Satisfaction In Trading at Home With Local Merchants

There's a lot of satisfaction in trading with your home merchants and throwing the mail order catalogues into the fire, when they get to you.

There's a lot of satisfaction in being able to realize that you are doing your part in community building, that you are helping to build roads, school houses and accomplishing other public improvements.

There's a lot of satisfaction in being able to say that you always trade at home.

In which class are you? Do you do your part toward your town and your neighbors? Or do you send your money away from home, where it never returns and where it can do no benefit except to fill up the pockets of individuals whom you have never seen, whom you will never see, who will do nothing for you and who care nothing about you.

Washington merchants, Aurora merchants, Belhaven merchants, Pinetown merchants, Bath merchants, Chocowinity merchants, and every other merchant in the county, helps the county to grow and prosper. Isn't it fair that you should trade with them and help them?

KICK OUT THE "TOWN KNOCKER"

The only thing to do with the "Town Knocker" is to kick him out. Tolerate him for a minute, and he spreads like an epidemic all over the community. He is the original "Calamity Howler" and "Bird-of-Ill-Omen." He is never so happy as when he can persuade other people to think the same way as he does. If allowed to "get the floor," he will knock the pins from under the best proposition on earth. He is against every form of improvement, and if he converts enough people to HIS way of thinking, the town will come to a dead stop. After having KILLED everything, he glories in the fact that nothing can be done for the town. It is doomed. The only thing to do with the "Town Knocker" is to head him for the cemetery. His habit of knocking is so infectious that it has been known to spread among some of the best people. KICK THE KNOCKER OUT.
