

BOYCOTTS BRING DOWN PRICES OF FOODSTUFFS

VILLA NOW HOLDS ALL CHIHUAHUA

REPORTS DECLARE THAT ENTIRE STATE IS NOW DOMINATED BY THE MARIQUETTES. CHIEFTAIN FOREIGNERS IN CITY

EL PASO.—The entire state of Chihuahua is now dominated by Villa, Mexican officials here announced that the city of Chihuahua, the key to northern Mexico, fell Monday. Carranzista defenders were cut to ribbons. When the Villa troops finally managed to force an entrance into the city, the defeatist troops scattered in all directions. They were divided and many fled southward. Villa is now in entire possession of the city.

It is reported that Villa entered the city at five o'clock in the afternoon after five days of vigorous bombardment. The entire city was occupied after a brief hand to hand conflict with the Carranzistas.

In addition to the Americans in Chihuahua, there were also a number of Germans, French and Chinese. Latest reports also stated that the British consul, Captain Smith and the French consul were also there.

It is believed that General Carranza's general, with 100 men, has fled northward. Commander Trevino, with 700 men, according to latest reports, escaped southward.

ARRIVE IN LEAGUE TO CHECK THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON.—The Departments of Agriculture, Commerce and Postoffice and many congressmen are leagued in the effort to check the high cost of living. Their efforts are the result of appeals by the public and boycotts. Dictatorships and price control are among the remedies suggested in messages received by the President and members of the cabinet.

LOCAL MARKET THE ONLY ONE TO SHOW GAIN

ALL OTHER LARGE MARKETS IN THIS SECTION OF STATE SHOW DECREASE IN SALES

CROP FELL FAR SHORT

This Caused the Falling Off in Sales of the Other Markets. More Tobacco Was Brought to Washington Market, However.

From present available figures, it is indicated that the Washington tobacco market will be the only one in Eastern North Carolina to show an increase in sales over last year.

The local market is already ahead of the last year's mark in spite of the fact that the crop this season was less than last year. Greenville, Johnston, Hoke, Mount, Wilson and the other big markets in this section of the state are far behind their 1915 mark.

A meeting of the Washington Tobacco Board of Trade was held yesterday and much satisfaction was expressed over the result of the year's work. It is believed that next year, with a normal crop, the local market will probably double its sales.

CENTRAL WAREHOUSE ENDS PRIZE CONTEST

Winners Were Announced Monday. Warehouse Will Close on December 15.

The prize contest at the Central Warehouse, which aroused much interest during its procedure, has been terminated and the following winners were announced Monday:

- Largest number of pounds sold, Gray Moore, suit of furnitures.
- Highest average for 1,000 pounds, J. H. Rowe, a cooking range.
- Highest average for 500 pounds, J. G. Lewis, suit of clothes.

For the lady selling largest number of pounds, Mrs. Lena Galloway, a coat suit.

The Central Warehouse has had a most successful season and has been a strong factor in keeping up the local market. They will close their season on December 15.

Banks Will Be Closed. The banks of the city will be closed tomorrow on account of Thanksgiving day.

Here from Ransomville. G. M. Jordan, of Ransomville, is spending today in the city, attending to business matters.

Mr. Barr in Town. E. L. Barr, of Chocowinity, is among the out of town visitors in the city today.

Big Scoops Secured By The Daily News And United Press

Readers of the Daily News were provided with "red hot news" yesterday through the paper's service.—The United Press. No comparison could be more effective than to compare the Daily News of yesterday with one of the State papers, which reached the city this morning and which has quite a large circulation throughout this section.

The Daily News yesterday announced that the Teuton armies had crossed the Danube and were hot on the trail of the Rumanians.

The State paper this morning carried the headline: "Teuton Armies Cross Danube in Swift March on Bucharest."

The Daily News yesterday carried the appeal of the National Homeless League to President Wilson regarding the high cost of living.

The same story was given prominent display on the front page of the State paper this morning.

The Daily News yesterday stated that the location of the farm loan banks would be announced within twenty days.

The State paper this morning carried the headline on the front page: "To Make Known Bank Locations in Twenty Days."

The Daily News yesterday told of an aeroplane flying over London and dropping bombs on the city.

The State paper this morning carried the same story under the headline: "More bombs dropped on English capital."

The Daily News yesterday told of the protest that the United States would make to Belgium over the deportation of Belgians into Germany.

The State paper this morning carried the headline: "New Representations to be Made Regarding Belgian Deportation."

And last, but not least, the Daily News yesterday announced that Villa had captured Chihuahua.

The State paper this morning carried the headline: "Nothing definite from Chihuahua." It has not yet found out that the city has been captured, although the United Press carried the announcement twenty hours ago.

BANDITS MADE A BIG RAID

(By United Press)
HAZELTON, KAN.—Four masked bandits today dynamited the safe in the Hazelton state bank and escaped with $12,000. They bound and gagged two male telephone operators to the local exchange and kidnapped them in automobiles.

CONTRACTS AWARDED FOR SUBMARINES

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON.—The navy today awarded contracts for eighteen coast submarines. Six will be built by the Electric Boat Company for $427,000 each, six by the Lake Torpedo Boat Company for $394,000 each, three by the California Ship Building Company for $498,000 each, one 380-ton submarine by the Electric Boat Company will cost $1,189,000 and one by the Lake Company will cost $1,195,000.

KAISER IS IN VIENNA

(By United Press)
AMSTERDAM.—A severe cold will prevent the Kaiser from attending the funeral of Franz Jindl tomorrow. He arrived at Vienna yesterday and is in the evening upon advice of physicians. He visited the cemetery today and wreath upon the body and afterwards conferred with the military and naval staff.

NO SUPER BOMBSHOW

According to the fact that tomorrow is Thanksgiving, the Daily News will have no super bombshow.

Gene in Airport News. Mr. Cross, of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, leaves tonight for New York, where he goes to spend Thanksgiving.

TURKEYS SELL FOR 3 CENTS PER POUND

BOYCOTT PLAN IS SWEEPING THE COUNTRY. PRICE OF FOOD TUMBLES RAPIDLY.

DEALERS UP AGAINST IT

Large Cities Have Started Boycotts on Turkeys and Eggs. Plan is Spreading Like Wildfire All Over the Country.

(By United Press)
NEW YORK.—Boycotts in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and other cities are rapidly causing a big drop in the price of eggs and turkeys.

Pittsburgh dealers today offered live turkeys at three cents a pound as live turkeys arrived in the city.

The situation is without parallel in the history of the country. It is believed that other boycotts will soon follow on various articles of food. Dealers are "up against it." They are forced to sell their poultry, eggs and other food stuffs and as the boycott on these articles has cut the demand for them down to a minimum, the dealers are forced to cut prices on a big scale.

The boycott movement is spreading rapidly throughout the country. Many cities have taken it up. It usually begins with the boycott on some single article until further notice. Within a few days the price is cut down by the dealers and then the people are told to buy.

EASTERN N. C. CITIES AFTER WATER ROUTE

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON.—The Chambers of Commerce of Goldsboro, Kinston and Fayetteville, N. C., cooperating with the Carolina Steamship Company, have asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to permit the company to establish docking facilities at New Bern and Wilmington, N. C., furnishing direct water and rail route from inland North Carolina cities to Baltimore.

MEMORY OF FRANZ JOSEF HONORED IN WASHINGTON

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON.—Some of the regal splendor of the court of the Hapsburgs was displayed here today at the solemn mass for the repose of the soul of Emperor Franz Josef, the President, Mrs. Wilson, Supreme court, high navy and army officials, diplomats and members of the cabinet attended.

MANY CARS ARE BEING SOLD BY GEO. HACKNEY

Since taking up the Studebaker agency in Washington, George Hackney, Jr., has disposed of a large number of these cars. Mr. Hackney is running two advertisements in today's issue of the Daily News which will prove of interest to prospective auto purchasers.

BAKER'S STUDIO

Will be opened the best part of tomorrow. All persons specially interested in photography can either phone us or catch us on the business hours of the day. Baker's Studio.

ROMANIANS MAY YET TURN TIDE

CRUX OF SITUATION HAS ARRIVED. IF ADVANCE IS STOPPED, RUSSIANS CAN HELP.

MACKENSEN STILL ADVANCES

With the Aid of the Russians the Rumanians May Turn Retreatment Into Victory if They Can Only Halt Progress of Teutons.

(By United Press)
LONDON.—The progress of General Mackensen's forces from Georgia across the Danube brings about the crux of the Rumanian situation. If this advance is stopped, the Rumanians, with the aid of the Russians, may possibly turn their retreatment into victory.

Progress at Monastir. PARIS.—Continued progress by the allies west and north of Monastir is reported in an official statement. The Serbians brilliantly carried and retained the height northwest of Gruniza and east of Czerna. Nothing new is reported on the western front except violent cannonading on the Somme.

Russians Capture Heights. PETROGRAD.—Ridges and heights eastward and southward from Kirilibaba, in southeastern Bukovina, have been captured by the Rumanians.

RULES FOR SENDING CHRISTMAS PACKAGES THROUGH THE MAIL

Postoffice Department Tells How All Packages May Be Assured of Quick Delivery.

Rules for mailing Christmas parcels have been issued by the Postoffice department. Close adherence to these rules, will insure prompt delivery and at the same time lighten the burdens of mail clerks.

Here are the more important: Prepay postage fully on all parcels. Address parcels carefully and fully.

Attach name of sender to all parcels. Pack and tie articles carefully. Do not seal, for then full letter rates will be charged.

Mail parcels early; they may be marked: "Do not open until Christmas."

FRESH MEATS

ALL KINDS
All Pork Sausages, Fresh Oysters
Walter Credle & Company
DEPARTMENT GROCERS
Chest 80 and 92

CHARLES E. HUGHES GOING BACK TO LAW TO HEAD OLD FIRM

LAKELAND, N. J.—Charles E. Hughes, defeated candidate for President on the Republican ticket today authorized the following announcement:

"Charles E. Hughes will resume the practice of law in New York city on January 1. He will go back to his old firm, now Ronald, Seligman and White, with offices at No. 63 Broadway. The firm name will be Hughes, Seligman and White. His son, Charles H. Hughes, Jr., will enter the firm at the same time."

Visiting Mrs. Bealight. Mrs. Mary T. Bealight, of Hendersonville, Tenn., arrived in the city last night and is visiting her son, Rev. H. D. Bealight, at the cabinet.

TODAYS PROGRAM

—AT—
New Theatre

VAUDEVILLE & PICTURES
"The American Beauty"
Five Real Feature
WITH MYRTLE NEEDHAM
"Marvel, Oberst & Company"
in Mirth, Mystery and Magic
See Marvel, the Mysterious
Lady in the Black Mask

ADMISSION 10c and 20c
Show starts at 7:45 sharp
Matinee daily at 4 p. m.

Economy Lies in Buying That Which is Good - There is no economy in buying cheaply made and poor quality clothes just because the price is attractive. Buy clothes that have stood the test at all times. BUY A "NATIONAL STUDENT" SUIT. FOR SALE BY CALAIS CLOTHING CO.