REV. J. H. WARREN TO LEAVE W. C. I.

Announcement was made a few days ago of the fact that Rev. J. H. Warren, the leading spirit in the Washington Collegiate Institute, had been transferred to the Pearl street Methodist church in Elizabeth City. While the appointment comes in the shape of a promotion, genuine regret will be felt among local citizens in losing Mr. Warren and it is generally hoped that he will be back at the Institute again before very long.

Mr. Warren was transferred from the Holston Conference at Athens, Tenn., six years ago, to the Atlantic Mission Conference, which embraces all Eastern North Carolina. He first moved to Morehead City and was not there long before all the pastors and the leading laymen saw that they had a true leader. He has always been an active worker and has done much for the betterment and advancement of this conference. His work at the Washington Collegiate Institute will never be forgotten and while our citizens are loath to part with him, they will wish him well in his new field of work and continue to hope that he will be back in Washington again.

TROUBLE OVER EMBARGO ON MUNITIONS

MEXICANS DISPLEASED OVER REGULATIONS IMPOSED BY UNITED STATES.

AMMUNITION IS LACKING

Carranza Officials Admit That the Lack of Ammunition at Chihuahua Was Responsible for Villa's Taking the City.

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON.—The American embargo upon the shipment of arms across the Mexican border promises to become a live issue between this government and Mexico. Carranza's advisors here are severely displeased at the regulation of the United States which they claim in theory, though not in practice, prevents the Carranzistas and Villistas from receiving arms.

The Mexicans are frankly admitting that lack of ammunition caused the fall of Chihuahua City. American officials, on the other hand, declare that the Carranzistas had sufficient ammunition but that Villa's men wrested it from them.

As the embargo now stands, the United States can make special exceptions for the passage of shipments. However, this has rarely been done for fear that such shipments might fall into the hands of the bandits and become boomerangs. It was learned today that Ambassador Arondo has called the attention of the State Department to the issue.
