GERMAN SUBMARINE BASES ARE BLOCKED

ZEEBRUGGE AND OSTEND HAVE BEEN BLOCKED BY THE BRITISH IN RAIDS

German Submarine bases have been forced to immobilize their U-boats and torpedo boats at Brugges, in interior of Belgium.

(By United Press.)

LONDON, May 21.—The greater portion of the German submarine and torpedo craft, which formerly were operated from the enemy bases in Flanders, have been immobilized in Brugges, the British admiralty announced today. This is taken to mean that the blocking of the Ostend and Zeebrugge harbors by sinking concrete-filled ships has locked the German craft in the basin at Brugges. Brugges is located in the interior of Belgium and is connected with Ostend and Zeebrugge by canals.

DISCIPLES TO BUILD NEW CHURCH, MINGES DREW LARGE CROWDS AT MEETINGS HELD ON YESTERDAY

At a meeting of the Official Board of the Christian Church yesterday afternoon the members voted to erect a new institutional church costing approximately $200,000. The membership has for some time felt the need of a new building and the success of the revival conducted by William John Minges has brought the church face to face with the immediate necessity of making a forward move at this time. Proper committees will be announced soon and the work of its long cherished ambition will be industriously pushed.

Evangelist Minges has been instrumental in helping put across many large institutional church projects during his evangelistic career. This church has the combined features of Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., gymnasium, shower bath, social hall, ladies parlor and men's parlors, and public reading room. The social hall is kept open for the general public seven days in the week. Evangelist Minges says that there is no use of a preacher flogging the young people on Sunday about going to questionable places in the week when the church is a cold storage plant six days in the week and only open on Sunday. The church should be the brightest and the most cheerful place in the city, with the best music and the most cheering song. "We have been building our churches in the cemeteries and singing 'Dark from the Tomb, Comes a Doleful Sound.' Let us build our churches for the living and sing 'Brighten the Corner Where You Are.' We need new sweet, new-and-now, and less sweet hymns and songs. Bring the pearls of truth down here. Christ taught us to pray for the things to be done on earth as they are in Heaven. The Apostle Paul preached at death and the grave. 'Oh, death where is thy sting. Oh, grave where is thy victory.' Let us discontinue the custom of going around wearing our shrouds before our funerals."

Yesterday at all the services people thronged to the Warehouse and the interest was intense. His morning

Guarantors Are Asked To Clip Coupons When Selling Their Tickets

Tickets for the Community Chautauque, which will be here for five days, beginning June 5th, were distributed to the various guarantors today by James Ellison, chairman of the ticket selling committee. Mr. Ellison asked that the guarantors pay special attention to the following advice: "There is a coupon attached to each ticket. Each guarantor is requested to detach this coupon when selling a ticket and write the purchaser's name thereon and also the name of the guarantor who is making the sale. It is very important that this be done."

argumentative and forensic ability. He carried his hearers to the very heavens with his flights of oratory and appeal for the higher things of life.

The special music, a solo "Since I Found My Savior," sung by Mrs. Minges, accompanied with her harp, and at the close of the service Mr. Jarman sang "Tell Mother I'll Be There," which was beautifully illustrated with stereoscopic pictures.

No service will be held at the warehouse tonight, but Tuesday there will be a special patriotic service. Mr. Minges will preach on "Home," and the old time songs and patriotic numbers will be used. A special invitation is extended to all relatives and friends of the soldier boys.

Saturday night was "farmers night" and drew a large crowd. The gifts of $2 each was given to E. S. Waters of Partridge, who came 27 miles to attend the meetings, and to McDonald Gaudier of Old Ford, for bringing the largest load. He brought eleven people with him. Next Saturday night will be "farmers night" again.

Enemy Have Made Considerable Increase In Their Forces in Anticipation of the Great New Offensive.

(By United Press)

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES AFIELD, May 19.—In preparation for the resumption of the offensive the Germans have concentrated one hundred and forty divisions between the North Sea and the Oise. These comprise two thirds of the entire army and total in round numbers to one million six hundred and eighty thousand men. This includes one million and one hundred thousand of the German divisions. This mass includes all divisions of Germanis, who were able to reorganize after the March offensive. They are divided into five armies.

LONDON, May 20.—Our troops conducted a successful raid in the Albert sector yesterday and took a few prisoners according to a statement received from General Haig today. An attempted enemy raid was repulsed with heavy losses by our men. Heavy artillery firing increased considerably last night along the Albert Buequoy front.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 20.—An American official communique said last night that aside from mutual aerial activity the day was quiet along the front which our troops occupy. Our aviators brought down two hostile aeroplanes. In the course of a running air fight along the American front, Major Raul Lufberry, an American Ace and a former member of the Lafayette Escadrille fell from his machine. The cablegram failed to state whether he was killed or seriously injured.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—General Pershing reported forty-five casualties today. This includes seven killed in action, one died from wounds, one died of accident, seven died of disease, twenty-seven were severely wounded and two slightly wounded.

NEW HONOR CONFERRED ON GEN. MARCH

(By United Press.) WASHINGTON, May 20.—President Wilson will this week name Major General Peyton C. March full general and chief of his staff. General Tucke E. Bliss now chief of the staff and the American Representative at the Versailles council, will become Brevet General. These important changes merely mean more honor for March. He will wear the rare insignia of four shoulder stars which spell the removal of restrictions. He was under while acting as chief. He encountered these restrictions because some other Major General outranked him.

MANY TRACTORS ARE NOW USED BY FARMERS

Washington, May 20.—The American farmer is carrying on, though his sons and his horses have gone to the war by regiments and by droves. He has got to produce bigger crops, over wide areas, this season than ever before, if the world is not to starve. Without his horses and his sons, and with farm hands as scarce as okeleles at a symphony concert, the American farmer is out to win, and he's going to do it.

One hundred thousand tractors are being chugging away in the fields, early and late, doing the work of at least 200,000 farm hands and 800,000 horses. The farmer has planned his farm to the tractor, and if he can win over the submarine with it this year, neither the U. W. W. nor the Malthusian law ever again can worry the food producer. The tractor is solving the American food production problem, the back-to-the-land problem, and many other things that used to give the good American Gray hairs. Last summer not more than 40,000 tractors were in use on American farms and the gasoline powered horse was looked upon as an experiment. Now twelve factories are running night and day to supply the demand for tractors, and the railroad administration is rushing thousands of tractors to the fields. More than 200,000 of these gasoline laborers will be in use by the end of this year, officials of the department of agriculture estimate. "The tractor never requires a rest at the headland, nor does it pause to graze on the growing corn as it goes along."
