Shalotte News

(By Miss Annie Mae Holmes)

R. D. White, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. White, is home for the summer after attending school in the western part of the state the past year.

New Fixtures

Mr. Bellman, sales promotion representative of a Richmond mercantile concern, is engaged this week putting in new cases and display fixtures for the Shallotte Trading Company. Hobson Kirby, owner of the store, has been making improvements from week to week, and is meeting with a good volume of business.

Successful Revival

The revival meeting at Chapel Hill Baptist Church is still in progress this week. Young Rev. Theodore Newton, who is conducting the meetings, is well liked by his hearers.

At Summer School

Rev. R. N. Fitts, accompanied by his daughter, Rena, left for Durham the first of the week where Mr. Fitts will be in school for several days.

In Hospital

The nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Pierce was taken to the hospital in Southport by Dr. Goley for an appendix operation Monday afternoon.

Is Recovering

Friends and relatives here of Charlie Arnold, CCC employee, are glad to learn that he is doing nicely after an appendix operation at the Brunswick County Hospital last week.

Condition Improving

Elton, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cheers, who is making his home with Mrs. Florence Chadwick here, is reported improving after being quite ill for the past several days.

Opens Office

Dr. W. Ross Davis, popular dental surgeon of Whiteville, is spending several weeks here while workmen are engaged in remodeling his office building. While here, he has opened an office in Dr. Goley's drug store, which no doubt will meet with much approval by people of this section in need of dental treatment.

Miss Oleta Clemmons, of Supply, is spending a while with Miss Mildred Williams, of Shallotte.

Birthday Party

Master Homer Anderson of Shallotte Point celebrated his ninth birthday, Saturday, June 8, at the home of his parents. Many guests were present. Games were played and delicious refreshments were served by his mother.

Friends of Mr. Norwood Orrell Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brooks, regret to learn that he is ill at his home at Sea Side. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.
