EXUM
Exum, Dec. 10.—Mrs. W. S. Carlisle passed a way at her home in the Zion neighborhood on Thursday, December 5th. She had been an invalid for more than three years and the end did not come unexpected. Mrs. Carlisle, before her marriage was Miss Elmira Hickman, daughter of the late Samuel Hickman. Although her body had been frail for a long time she was still an inspiration to all who knew her. Her suffering was taken patiently and she was always ready and glad for a visiting friend or neighbor to come in for a chat. She was a member of Zion Baptist church from its beginning and was ever faithful to its needs. There is nothing more fitting to epitomize the life of this good lady than the Scripture, 2nd Timothy 4: 7, 8: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them that love His appearing."
Surviving her are her husband, eight daughters, Mrs. Blanie Hickman, Mrs. J. K. Ludlum, Mrs. James Hildreth, Mrs. Olen Gore, Mrs. Lester Gore, Mrs. Willie Quick, Mrs. Pearl Jones and Mrs. Bertha Daniels. One son, Mr. Laten Carlisle, and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were in charge of the Reverend W. V. Simmons on Friday afternoon.
It was a great shock to the many friends of Miss Nellie Little when she died Tuesday night of last week. Miss Little was probably about 45 years of age and had never married. Although her health was not good her condition was not known to be serious and she had kept up until a few days before her death. She was a faithful member of Camp Branch Baptist church.
Although she was frail and there was lots of things she could not do for want of physical strength she was always ready to lend a helping hand where ever she could. Her last work on earth was to visit and assist a sick neighbor. She is survived by several brothers and sisters. Funeral services were conducted by Reverend W. V. Simmons and interment was made in Camp Branch cemetery on Thursday morning.
Edward, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stanley died at the home of his parents Friday, December 6th. Edward was only 2½ years old and was an unusually sweet child. To his family and close friends he was known as Amos and his twin brother, Newman was called Andy. His death was caused by pneumonia. Surviving him are his parents, two brothers, Laten and Frank, two sisters, Ruby and Crystal, also his twin, Newman. The entire community extends its sympathy to the bereaved family. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon with Reverend Z. G. Ray, a former pastor of the family in charge.
Mrs. Polly Millican has been quite sick for several days.
Miss Lelia Simmons of Wilmington spent the week-end here with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Bennett.
Dorsey Cox has been ill for the last week.
Reverend W. C. Wescott filled his regular appointment at New Life Baptist church Saturday and Sunday. He was called to Prospect church Sunday afternoon to preach the funeral of Mrs. E. L. Holden.
The many friends of Mrs. W. J. Purvis will regret to learn that she is ill in the Brunswick county hospital. Her condition is reported to be improved.
Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Phelps and children, Eula Mae and Dalton, spent Sunday afternoon with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Phelps.
