EXUM NEWS

Rev. W. C. Wescott filled his regular appointment at New Life Baptist church Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. For his Sunday morning sermon he used as a text the words "Shew thyself to Abab and I will send Rain Upon the Earth," taken from 1st Kings, 18th chapter, 1st verse.

Elbert Little and Miss Allie Smith, of Ash, were quietly married at Conway, S. C., on Saturday, June 28th. He is the son of Mrs. Nicy Little and the late Calvin Little. Mrs. Little is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brady Smith. They are making their home at Makatoka near here.

Melvin McPherson and Miss Ruth Little, both of the Camp Branch community, were married recently. They are living at Camp Branch.

A leaders school for the food leaders and presidents of home demonstration clubs of Waccamaw township was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Dodson on Friday of last week by Miss Sallie Brooks, of Raleigh. The demonstrations which were on making salads and dressings were very interesting and beneficial.

Luncheon was served by Miss Brooks, assisted by Miss Marion Smith and Mrs. Dodson. Those attending were: Miss Marion Smith, home agent, Mesdames D. B. Long, and B. M. Crawford, from Ash Creek; Mesdames E. R. Bennett, B. L. Russ, J. E. Dodson and Miss Blanche Phelps from the club at Exum.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Sexton and two children from Baltimore, Md., arrived here Saturday to spend the summer with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Phelps.

Miss Mary Frances Dodson returned home from Greensboro last week where she has been spending some time with relatives.

Mrs. Anson Ludlum and Miss Naoma Jones from Mill Branch spent the week-end here as the guests of Mrs. J. H. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Russ, of Makatoka, were visitors of his mother, Mrs. Emma Russ, Sunday.

A forest fire in the Zion community has been doing serious damage to timber and woodland for the past several days. With dry weather prevailing it has been very difficult for workmen to accomplish much any more than to try to keep it from spreading over a larger territory than could be helped.

County agent J. E. Dodson and sons, Jack and Phil, spent Friday at White Lake.

E. M. Little and daughter, Miss Ariene, of the Camp Branch section, visited friends and relatives here Sunday.

COUNTY HOME NOTES

Mrs. Fred Smith called the first of the past week, bringing a new resident for the home, William Floyd Dillon Ganev and Joe Mintz also called, bringing another resident, Fuller McFayden.

Other callers at the home during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Alec Williams and Mrs. Cratie Arnold and sister, Mrs. Bessie Willets, Messrs. Jasper Murrell, Kendall Cox, Sherman Willets and Garvin Mercer, of Bolivia.

Miss E. Satterfield and Miss Maul called Wednesday forenoon and held a brief service. Several friends were with them. Circumstances prevented them from holding services on Tuesday evening.

Miss Odessa Reynolds, of Shallotte, came Thursday and is a welcome addition to the helpers at the home.

Messrs. Theodore Reynolds and Hercules Stanley called Saturday night.

Rev. John Warren, of the Southside Baptist church, Wilmington, came Sunday afternoon and preached a splendid sermon at the home. A number of friends came with him.

Crops are looking well on the farm, especially corn and peanuts. The residents have been enjoying a variety of vegetables produced in our garden.

L. E. Long vs. Maude E. Long

The defendant, Maude E. Long, above named, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Brunswick County, North Carolina, at his office for absolute divorce upon the grounds of two years separation, as provided by the laws of the State of North Carolina, and the said defendant will further take notice that she is required to appear at the office of the clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, North Carolina, at his office in Southport, N. C., on or before the 25th day of July, 1936, and answer or demur to the complaint in said action, or the plaintiff will apply for relief demanded in said complaint.

This 22nd day of June, 1936.
M. B. WATKINS, Assistant Clerk Superior Court.

FORECLOSURE SALE REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain mortgage deed executed November 23rd, 1931, by J. F. Sommerette, J. M. Sommerette and wife, Lucy Sommerette, to C. Ed Taylor, Guardian of James Stanley, duly recorded in Book 62, at page 283, records of Brunswick County, North Carolina, to which reference is hereby especially made, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, the undersigned mortgagee will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door, Southport, N. C., on MONDAY, AUGUST 24, 1936, at 10 o'clock, the following described land, located in Shallotte Township, Brunswick county, North Carolina, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point where the run of Saw Pitt Swamp and Poplar Branch meet; runs thence up the run of Poplar Branch, as it meanders, about 2080 feet to a stake in the G. E. Brooks line on said branch; thence with the G. E. Brooks line south 23 degrees 11' west 232 feet to an old stump, a corner of the J. W. Milliken land, included in this description; thence north 66 degrees, 30' west 284 feet to an old oak stump, a corner of the Ida Cairns tract No. 1, also corner of the Sidney Stanley land; runs thence with the S. M. Taylor line, above named, north 20 degrees west 963 feet to a stake; thence north 21 degrees west 826 feet to the edge of Saw Pitt Swamp; thence south 21 degrees west 826 feet to the road which
