Colored Women Observe Anniversary

Members of the Pearl of Truth Tents No. 148, fraternal organization of colored women, observed its 33rd anniversary at St. James A. M. E. Zion church on Sunday. The annual sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. R. F. Fisher. He preached to the sisters on, "So Israel Departed Unto Their Tents." Victoria McCoy sang a solo. Esther Eagles read a paper.

This organization is the only benevolent and fraternal order of colored women in Southport that has successfully withstood the depression. The seventh degree was conferred on eight members recently as follows: Lucy Betts, Othelia Miller, Queenie Bellamy, Lula Hewitt, Esther Eagles, Annie Hankins, Maggie L. Warnett and Ruth Hankins.
