Literary Digest Ballots Received

Individual Ballots Received Here Last Week And Local Citizens Begin Mail-In Choice For President

Individual ballots have been mailed to voters of Southport and nearby communities in a new Literary Digest poll of over 10,000,000 persons to ascertain who will be the next President of the United States. The votes should be distributed by the Post Office locally within a few days, according to advice received today from the magazine's publishers.

North Carolina's returns in this 1936 referendum will be tallied as a unit so they may be compared with the voting in other states, it is announced. The voting of the post-card ballots is secret as no signature or other identification is required and the return postage is paid by the magazine.

Whiteville Sells Some 12 Million

Sales Today Expected To Bring The Whiteville Tobacco Market Past The 12 Million Mark

With sales fairly heavy on the Whiteville tobacco market today, the total poundage for the season was expected to pass the 12 million mark, with average price running around the quarter of a dollar mark.

School Lunches Must Be Planned

Good School Lunch Is Planned In Relation To Meals At Home, Says Food Specialist Of State College

The good school lunch is planned in relation to the meals at home, said Miss Mary E. Thomas, extension nutritionist at State College.

If children are to grow, be active in mind and strong in body, and have resistance to disease, their noon-day meal should combine with their home meals to give a well-balanced diet, she added.

A child should have daily: a quart of milk; two servings of vegetables in addition to potatoes; two servings of fruit, one raw, if raw vegetables or canned tomatoes are not served; at least one serving of egg, meat, fish, or cheese; cereal foods such as whole grain breads and breakfast cereals; butter, and sweets in moderate amounts.

The food should be so prepared that it is easy to digest. Variety in texture and color makes the lunch more appetizing. Have one of the foods in the lunch soft and moist, another crisp or crunchy to chew.

Sandwiches are the mainstay of any lunch as they are easy to carry and are generally liked. Numerous varieties of sandwiches can be made with fillings of fruits, vegetables, meats, and cheese.

Vegetables, especially raw ones, are appetizing and can be carried easily either wrapped in wax paper or made into salads. The fruit in the lunch box may be fresh, dried, canned, or in the form of juice.

If milk cannot be taken in the lunch box and kept cold, it may be prepared in the form of custards, puddings, and cottage cheese.

Miss Thomas also pointed out that it is better to put the staple foods on top, where they will be eaten first, and have the sweets or desserts in the bottom of the lunch. This will tend to keep the child from eating the dessert first and then leaving the rest.

Attractive Southport Homes

Stuart House Is Famous To Visitors Of Past Generation

HOSTELRY—The old Stuart House on the waterfront was once the most famous place in town for tourists. Many North Carolina citizens remember with pleasure their visits to the Stuart House while Miss Kate Stuart was living. The property now is owned by the Skinner family and the house is used as a summer home.

Fishing License Is Not Required

Sportsmen planning to come to Southport for a few days fishing need not hesitate because they have no state hunting and fishing license, for none is required for fishing in commercial waters.

However, the hunters who come here to shoot marsh hens are required to have their necessary license. These may be purchased in Southport at the Brunswick county courthouse.

State Treasurer To Visit Southport

State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson wrote friends here Tuesday that he would probably be here the coming week. His visit will likely be for two or three days and will be mostly for the pleasure of hunting and fishing.

"The Devil Is A Sissy," Opens Thursday At Carolina Theatre

Bringing together three of the most famous boy stars in motion pictures, and telling a story that reaches deep into the hearts, "The Devil Is A Sissy" opens Thursday at the Carolina Theatre.

In "The Devil Is A Sissy" that brilliant child actor, Freddie Bartholomew, who enacted first "David Copperfield," and then "Little Lord Fauntleroy," now appears as an orphan of New York's lower East Side.

The story describes the adventures of the boys who live in crowded city streets without the advantages of decent environment. They band together to buy a tombstone for the father of "Gig" Stevens, who is Mickey Rooney. The elder Stevens, it happens, died in the electric chair in Sing Sing.

In their efforts to achieve a noble purpose the boys tangle with the juvenile court and it is Freddie who eventually saves them. There is a romantic note in the love that springs between Hunter and the hard-boiled chorus girl.
