Your Tobacco Deposits Belong In This Bank

No outside bank can have equal claim upon local deposits which come from tobacco raised in this community, and financed by loans from this bank.

We are glad to lend money to the tobacco growers of this community, and when the crop is harvested and in the warehouse, we welcome these borrowers back as depositors.

Deposit your tobacco money in this bank where it will benefit the community that produced it. We offer you the best of service and protection.

er Memorial Hospital for training as a nurse.
 Bingo was played during the evening, the highest score being awarded to Mrs. William Jorgensen. Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served. Miss Jorgensen received a shower of attractive gifts.
 Those present were: Misses Vera Jorgensen, Mildred Albridge, Esther Mae Potter, Lulu Brown, Myrtle Brown, Elizabeth Rackley, of Benson, Vera Swain, Evelyn

BRIDGE PARTY
 Mrs. William Wells was hostess Thursday evening at a bridge party honoring her guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Keister, of Albany, N. Y., and Miss Margaret Wells, of Greensboro.
 Bridge was played at three tables with high score prize for the ladies being won by Mrs. H. W. Hood and by Sassa Podale for the gentlemen. Consolation prize was cut by Miss Winnie Willis.

FISHING PARTY
 One of the most successful moonlight fishing expeditions of the season came in Friday night with 63 fish, the best catch of the season for inside fishermen. Those making the trip were: Captain and Mrs. William Wells, hosts, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Keister and Miss Margaret Wells, their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Yaskell and Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Cotton.

POTTER FAMILY REUNION
 The annual get-together meeting of the children, grandchildren and relatives of the late Berry Potter was held at Holden's Beach Thursday, August 12th. Mr. Potter, for a number of years before his death, observed this date in memory of the birthday of his deceased wife. The children and grandchildren continue to make this date a happy occasion for the getting together of the family.
 Joe Potter, the sole surviving brother of Berry Potter, was present Thursday and took a lively part. For several years Mr. Joe was so severely afflicted that it was not thought that he would survive his brother.
 The following members of the family, relatives and friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. Mercer Cox, their daughter, Mrs. Iris

Annual Missionary Society Meeting
 The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Union of the Brunswick Baptist Association will be held at Mill Creek Baptist Church on Friday, September 3rd. All members of the Missionary Societies and other W. M. U. organizations in the county are urged to be present.
 An interesting and instructive program has been arranged, with prominent speakers representing both our local and State-wide work.

Personal
 Captain and Mrs. J. I. Davis and family spent last week on a vacation trip to Western North Carolina.
 Mrs. Mary B. Yaskell and son, Add F. Yaskell, and Mrs. Simon Wonsavage, of Wilkes-Barre, Penna., are visiting the former's son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Yaskell, here this week.
 John P. Wonsavage, member of the Southport school faculty, has returned to Southport from his home in Wilkes-Barre, Penna.
