

Week's Schedule For Club Women

Following is the schedule for the home demonstration club meeting for the week. Friday, September 10, Land club at the home of Mrs. C. Newton at 3:30 o'clock. Monday, September 13, Phoenix club at the home of Mrs. High Dosterwyk at 3:00 o'clock. Tuesday, September 14, Ash club at the home of Mrs. D. B. Long at 3:00 o'clock. Thursday, September 16, Winna club at the home of Mrs. L. Henry at 3:00 o'clock.

At this time agents will discuss with the district agent, extension specialists, and the state 4-H leader for girls the plans of work for 1938 in home demonstration work. Service Club work, and 4-H Club work.

Home Agent Will Work With 4-H Clubs

All 4-H club girls are reminded that new project work in all subjects begins October 1st. If project completion and record books for 1936-37 have not already been reported to the home agent, she urges members to get them in this month. Watch the paper for an announcement of the 1937-38 schedule for 4-H Club meetings in the schools.

RETURNS Mrs. Agnes D. Anderson, of Philadelphia, Penna., for many years resident of Southport, is spending several days here with Mrs. J. E. Ruark.

District Agents Meet Next Week

Home Agents of Bladen, Brunswick, Cumberland, Duplin, New Hanover, Pender, Robeson and Sampson counties will meet in the home agent's office at Fayetteville on September 15, at 10 o'clock.

Carolina WILMINGTON

Advertisement for 'The GOOD EARTH' by Paul Muni and Louise Rainer. Includes a photo of the actors and promotional text.

Advertisement for 'The Confession' by Kay Francis. Includes a photo of the actress and promotional text.

TO WASHINGTON John P. Wonsavage, member of the Southport school faculty, returned Sunday night from Washington, D. C., where he went Saturday with his mother, Mrs. Dora Wonsavage, his aunt, Mrs. Mary B. Yaskell, and his cousin, A. F. Yaskell, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Yaskell. They were on their way to their home in Wilkes-Barre, Penna.

VISITOR Representative R. E. Sentelle was a business visitor in Southport during the past week-end.

RETURNS HOME Jane Shannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Shannon, returned home Tuesday from a two-weeks trip to San Francisco and other points of interest in California.

Misses Rebecca Alexander, Annie May Woodside and Sophia Hinton and W. R. Lingle witnessed the Lost Colony pageant at Manteo this past week-end.

NO COURT Last week's session of Recorder's court was postponed.

Large advertisement for Aladdin Mantle Lamps. Features a lamp illustration, the text 'Special Announcement This Startling Nu-Type Super Service', and a price of $4.95. Includes a 'SPECIAL OFFER' section.

SOCIETY

McAULEY-HOWEY WEDDING SATURDAY

In a simple wedding held Saturday morning at St. Phillips Episcopal church Miss Eleanor Elizabeth Howey became the bride of William Reid McAuley. The Rev. A. H. Marshall, rector of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a travelling suit of black and white, with a shoulder corsage of red roses. She was unattended. She is the attractive daughter of Mrs. George P. Howey, and is one of the most popular members of the younger set of Southport.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McAuley, of Sanford, and holds a responsible position with the State Highway Commission. They will make their home in Southport.

Personal

H. W. Hood, state inspector for the bureau of weights and measures, spent the past week-end here with his family.

Warren Hood, Jr., has returned home after spending several weeks in Gastonia.

Mrs. M. J. Holliday and her son, Tom, have been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lou H. Smith, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Furlps, of Raleigh, spent the Labor Day week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Price Furlps.

Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Willis and family, of Northville, Mich., returned home this week after spending several days here as guests of Mr. Alice Pearce.

Preston Bryant, of Atlantic City, N. J., is spending several days here.

Mrs. Phillip Galahger, of Lumberton, spent the week-end here with her husband, who is engineer at Camp Sapona.

J. C. Christian spent the past week-end here with his family.

Miss Lois Jane Bussels is visiting relatives in New York and in Amhurst, Mass.

Edward Taylor, who has spent the summer in Black Mountain, returned home Sunday.

Brunswick Women Attend Short Course

The counties of the Southeastern District were represented 100 per cent at the 4-H Short Course and Farm and Home Week despite the busy tobacco season.

Eighty-three counties were represented at the 4-H short course by 448 girls and 428 boys. Of this number 127 girls and 79 boys were from 20 counties of the Southeastern district. Delegates from Brunswick 4-H Clubs were: Bolivia, Catherine Willetts; Shallotte, Irene Robinson; Waccamaw, Muri Ward; Leland, Bernice Peterson.

Of the 1234 women registered for Farm and Home Week, 241 were from the Southeastern district. From Brunswick there were: Mrs. Frank Mintz, and Mrs. George Cannon from the Bolivia club; Mrs. J. E. Dodson, Ash club; Mrs. Joe P. Verzaan, Phoenix club; Mrs. C. C. Russ, visitor and sister of Mrs. Mintz.

1 HUSSMAN Refrigerator, display case and meat grinder, 1 Sherer display case, scales, fans, show cases, etc. Apply Waccamaw Lumber Corp., Bolton, N. C. 9-15c

LEGALS

MORTGAGE SALE

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain mortgage, dated August 23, 1937 from J. B. Atkinson and wife, Lizzie May Atkinson, to John Grissett, recorded in Book 48, at page 52, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Brunswick County, N. C., which said mortgage was made to secure a certain note therein recited, default having been made in the payment of the said note and interest, the undersigned mortgagee will sell at public sale, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the Court House door, Southport, North Carolina, at twelve o'clock, noon, on Friday, September 17, 1937, those certain tracts or parcels of land located in Brunswick County, North Carolina, bounded and described as follows:

FIRST TRACT: BEGINNING at a stake in the edge of the Main Public Road (that is leading from the Old Higgs place to Southport) in the old Higgs line, also the line run by order of court 1911 by Ralph Edwards, running north 72 degrees 20 east 500 feet to a stake near the head of Cedar Branch; thence north 1 degree 20 west 595 feet to a gum corner in the run of Cedar Branch; thence north 82 degrees 12 east to the aforesaid public road; thence with the said road to the point of BEGINNING, containing to the same 46 1/2 acres, be the same more or less, according to a survey made by E. W. Taylor, August 2, 1912.

SECOND TRACT: BEGINNING at S. V. Atkinson's corner, at a sweet gum in Rams Head Swamp, in said Atkinson's northern line; thence north 86 degrees, 15 west 338 feet to a stake; thence south 58 degrees, 20 west 150 feet to a stake; thence north 71 degrees, 20 west 1330 feet to a stone corner, P. L. Gore Estate; thence north 26 degrees and 20 east 2163 feet to two maples, a corner in Rams Head Swamp; thence down the run of the said Rams Head Swamp to the point of BEGINNING, containing to the same 79 1/2 acres, containing to a survey made by E. W. Taylor August 1, 1912. This being the same two tracts conveyed to Jesse B. Atkinson by deed dated August 1, 1912 and recorded in Book 21, at page 456, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Brunswick County, N. C. Dated and posted this 16th day of August, 1937. JOHN GRISSETT, Mortgagee. C. E. Taylor, Atty. 9-15c

CARD OF THANKS

We acknowledge with grateful appreciation the kind expressions of sympathy extended us during the illness and death of our mother, Annie M. Newton; also deeply appreciate the floral tributes which were many and beautiful.

MRS. J. E. MERRELL ANNIE NEWTON, CLYDE NEWTON.

WHITEVILLE MART PAYS HIGH PRICES FOR GOOD WEED

(Continued from page one) 600 pounds of tobacco were sold Thursday at an average of $22 per cwt. On the heaviest day of the season, 246,000 lbs. were sold Friday at an average of $25 cwt.

CARS BURNED AS TRAIN DERAILED

(Continued from page one) side of the fill. Heat from the fire reportedly delayed traffic on the nearby state highway for some time.

Besides the two tank cars, one empty car, one car filled with general merchandise and one filled with concrete pipe burned. The merchandise car contained a quantity of small ammunition, which exploded noisily but harmlessly in the terrific heat of the fire. Bystanders, who had refused to heed the admonition of trainmen to stand clear of the wreckage, took to their heels when the tiny cartridges began to pop.

WANTED

A good route man with car, between 25 and 40. Reliable. 1200 family route. Here is opportunity for good man to earn $30.00 to $50.00 weekly. No cash investment required. For details write H. A. MEYERS, Box No. 367, Newark, N. J.

the 40th through the 44th car of the 50-car train from the track, did slight damage to about 300 feet of track. The line was open the same afternoon, however. The first 39 cars of the train proceeded on to Florence after the accident and the remaining unburned cars were returned to Wilmington.

Advertisement for Amuzu Theatre Southport. Lists plays like 'THE GREAT HOSPITAL MYSTERY' and 'DRAGERMAN COURAGE'.

Large advertisement for FAIRMONT The Old Reliable. Promotes tobacco sales with statistics: 'Average $25.05', 'Average $25.01', '1,600,042 Pounds Sold For $400,809.91'.

Large advertisement for TUGGLES Warehouse. Features the text '3 First Sales Next Week 3 Monday-Wednesday-Friday', 'TUGGLES Warehouse Whiteville, N. C.', and 'F. A. Hayes, Auctioneer'. Includes a quote: 'The Farmer who knows, says Tuggles'.