Homer McKeithan returned here from Morgan City, La., Saturday and Monday morning he underwent an operation at the Brunswick County Hospital for the removal of his appendix.

It has frequently been stated that the Greek freighter Mt. Dirfy was wrecked on the shoals 13 miles from Southport. This is an error, H. L. Beck, superintendent of lighthouses for the 6th District, wrote the Civic Club this week that the wreck was 14.8 miles from the Cape Fear lighthouse. This would place it 21 miles from Southport.

MR. AND MRS. R. T. WOODSIDE and daughters, Mrs. Preston Bryant and Miss Bobbie Woodside, are spending a month in New York City with Mrs. W. R. Jenkins and Horace Woodside.

Bob Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Boyette and Al Newberry, of Lumberton, spent the past week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reece.

SUFFERS FRACTURES
Mrs. H. A. Offitt, of New York, was a patient at the Brunswick County Hospital Thursday and Friday of last week after she had suffered fracture of her wrist and arm as she stepped on the dock off her yacht at Little River, S. C.

CIRCLE MEETING
Miss Lottie Mae Newton was hostess Monday evening to members of Circle No. 3 of Trinity Methodist church at her home on Moore street. A Mother's Day program was given. Thirteen members and one visitor were present for the meeting. Strawberry shortcake was served.

DISCHARGED
The following patients were discharged from the Brunswick County Hospital during the past week: Virginia Thompson, Southport; Mrs. S. B. Northrop, Southport; J. F. Arnold, Southport; Grace Jenerette, Waccamaw; Mrs. Dora Rourk, Shallotte; Janey Canady, Ash; S. G. Holden, County home; Mrs. W. S. Sellers, Supply.

21 INSTEAD OF 13
It has frequently been stated that the Greek freighter Mt. Dirfy was wrecked on the shoals 13 miles from Southport. This is an error, H. L. Beck, superintendent of lighthouses for the 6th District, wrote the Civic Club this week that the wreck was 14.8 miles from the Cape Fear lighthouse. This would place it 21 miles from Southport.

CATHOLIC WHITEYS
W. C. Osborne, home for the week-end from Georgetown, S. C., where he is employed on the Comstock, did some casting from Caswell Beach Saturday afternoon and reported the taking of half a dozen large whiteys, weighing over a pound and a half each. In the north they call the whiteys Kinfish.

POOR SEASON
The half-dozen or more shrimp trawlers of the Wells Brothers fleet returned last week from Rockville, S. C., where they have been fishing most of this year. According to reports, they had a very poor season and produced even less than the boats that remained here during the off season period.

LIKES HIS FISHING
A. C. Lentz, of Albemarle, likes his fishing, especially at Southport. He has already been here three times with parties this spring. Last week he was accompanied by C. R. Bolick, T. F. Crisco, T. B. Mauney and E. E. Suggs. They made a beautiful catch from the E. M. Lewis of Captain Hulian Wats.

GULF STREAM PERCH
A month or more ago Henry N. Callahan of the Hotel Cape Fear and the Southport Civic Club secretary went out on the Gulf Stream prospecting. It was too early and the weather was not propitious. Heading homeward Captain Hulian Wats stopped for half an hour at the wreck of the Mt. Dirfy. There the party took 150 pounds of large sea bass. Sarcasically, Mr. Keziah dubbed these fish "gulf stream perch." The name is sticking. Last week little stories in various papers referred to Gulf Stream perch at Southport. As a result various and sundry inquiries are coming in from all sides. Some want to know how they are biting and some want to know just what sort of fish they are.

Whiteville Boys Camp On Island

Spent Week-End Camping On Bald Head Island; Under Charge Of Lee Greer, Whiteville Attorney

Eighteen husky Whiteville youths, including the unbeaten high school boxing team, spent from Thursday until Monday in camp on Bald Head Island. They were in charge of Lee Greer, Whiteville Attorney, who is much interested in the training of youth. Southport people were interested in the visit of these boys. The Civic Club secretary, W. B. Keziah, made every effort to be helpful, even going so far as to call up the island and ask if the boys would like having a supply of epsom salts or castor oil sent over for them.

In addition to Skipper Greer the following were in the party: J. H. Edwards, George Wooten, Manson Canady, Arthur Baldwin, James Fore, Willard Byrd, Redwine David, Stacy Thomas, Homer Thomas, David Barksdale, Joe Maulsbey, Bill Lewis, Eddie Odum, Simms Spears, Delmas Hooks, Montie Powell, Ralph Powell and Warren Cooke.

Municipal Official Pleased
William H. Newell, Consultant for the North Carolina League of Municipalities, spent part of last week here working with city officials. Saturday Mr. Newell went out for a bit of trolling for blue and mackerel from the Eva Mae of Captain Hulian Wats. He brought in a fine bunch of both and was so well pleased that he told the Civic Club he intended to do plenty of fishing from Southport this spring and summer.

Rourk Brothers To Manage Cabins

The new cabins now being built by Capt. I. B. Bussell, adjoining the River View Cafe, will be in charge of the Rourk Brothers, who own and operate the cafe. "Each cabin will have hot and cold shower baths and should be very desirable among fishing parties, as well as helping a little to take care of the overflow of summer visitors. Both the Rourk boys, Crawford and Harry, are experienced in the restaurant and cafe business, having operated establishments in Wilmington and Southport for several years.

Mill Branch

Mill Branch May 10—Mrs. Perry Mintz left last week on a vacation. Mrs. Mintz has been in poor health for sometime, and friends hope she will return very much improved.

The many friends of Mrs. Barney Benette will be glad to know she's doing nicely after undergoing an operation in James Walker Hospital.

A large crowd attended the funeral of Mrs. Olive Mintz Sunday afternoon at the Mintz cemetery near Shallotte.
