Consolation prize went to Lottie Mae Newton. The evening was remembered with many dainty and useful gifts. Refreshments were served consisting of a salad course.

PASTOR'S SCHOOL

W. E. Hall, pastor of the Methodist Church, left for Duke University. Mrs. Hall is visiting friends in Lilling.

APPENDIX REMOVED

Andrew Smith, of Fairmont, underwent an operation for the removal of his appendix Monday at the Brunswick County Hospital.

I THANK YOU

The Democratic primary is over, and while I was not the successful candidate for the office I sought, I want to express my sincere appreciation to the Brunswick county voters who gave me their support. To all of you who couldn't see my way and who voted for my opponent, I want you to know that I am still your friend.

BILL WELLS

My Friends, I Thank You

One of the greatest thrills of my life was being able to lead the ticket in the Democratic primary Saturday. All credit is due to you, my friends, and I am humbly grateful to you for your generous support of my candidacy. I shall do all in my power to make you proud of your choice. For two weeks before the primary, I was a sick man. For that reason I was unable to see many of my friends personally. I want you to know that I appreciate your standing by me.
