Thank You Mr. Farmer!

JIMMY MORGAN, Auctioneer

We want to take this opportunity to thank each of the farmers who sold tobacco with us in the past and assure them — one and all that we hope to sell their crop this season. We have not had the opportunity of seeing each of you personally, so we take this method of inviting you to sell tobacco with us this season. We will back this invitation up by giving quality service and top of the market prices.

We have one of the best warehouse organizations in the business to work for you and your interests . . .
