The Parent-Teacher Association is planning to sponsor its first public program on Saturday night October 28 at the schoolhouse. This will be in the form of a "fiddlers convention" and pie supper combined. Much enthusiasm is expected to be manifested because of the nature of the enter-Saturday from tainment and because the association expects to do a number of things for the school this year. Any musicians who would like to enter the contest may get in touch with the principal of the school, Glenn Tucker, or with any other officer of the association, ticular night. All girls and ladies of the community are asked to bring a pie to be sold at auction. There will be a number of other interesting features on the evenings program, Everyone is urged to plan now to be ready for the
