

Southport P.-T. A. Plans Program

Programs For This Year All Work Toward Goal Set By Officers And Members Of This Organization

The Parent-Teacher Association launched its program for the current year at a recent meeting and to gain the highest possible success the group made its aspirations high.

Principal W. R. Lingle stressed the need for Parent-Teacher cooperation in furthering the standards of the school. The association unanimously accepted his suggestions and adopted his theme of discussion—Health, Physical Education, and Citizenship—as their main plan of work for the year.

To aid in the understanding of this theme Mrs. H. W. Hood, as program chairman, has arranged

Receives Bright Saying Prize

Mrs. Elizabeth Gilbert received a check last week as prize for an entry submitted in the "Bright Sayings For Children" contest conducted by The Philadelphia Inquirer.

the following discussions for use at the yearly meetings with the Southport teachers in charge.

November—Character Education, Miss Colvin; December—Social Hygiene, Mrs. Lingle; January—Mental Hygiene, Mrs. Livingston; February—School Education for use of leisure, Misses Ashbury and Comer; March—Fundamentals of community recreation, Miss Poore; April—Teacher welfare, Mrs. Lingle and dramatic club.

The students of the school need the support of every parent in the community. The association wants to have not only old members but scores of new members to add to the roll at the next regular meeting, the first Thursday in November.

Floating Prep School On Visit

Captain and Mrs. William McD. Pond and their floating preparatory school for boys were in Southport Sunday and early Monday en route to the West Indies.

The Ponds show up here once or twice each year with their boat and a crew of boys who are preparing themselves for entrance into the United States Naval Academy. On this trip they have a new 98-ft. schooner that is a beauty, and she drew many expressions of admiration from the Sunday afternoon visitors to the Southport waterfront.

Large Trout Are Caught By Party

Chadborn and Lumberton men, fishing from the E. M. Lewis of Captain Hulan Watts Sunday, caught 178 large fall trout. It was probably the best party catch of trout brought in this year, considering the size of the fish.

Those in the party were C. J. Benton, B. W. Peal and Wadus Horne of Chadborn and A. R. Stanton and E. A. Prevatte of Lumberton.

Charlotte Men On Fishing Trip

A Charlotte party, headed by Dick Todd of the Charlotte Observer, spent Monday here fishing and were much pleased with the results, despite the fact that the catch indicated an off day for the fish.

They brought in a nice lot of trout, blues, mackerel and angel fish. In addition to Todd, the members of the party were Bunie Merritte, Frank Johnston, Dick Hermissa, Jennings Connell, C. B. Hutchins, Ralph Belk and S. A. Hallum. Todd decided that Southport was the logical place for folks around Charlotte to fish and he plans to return soon.

Leland P.-T. A. Holds Meeting

Interesting Program Is Presented And Aims For Present School Year Are Outlined

The first meeting of the Leland high school P.-T. A. was held in the school auditorium Tuesday night. The meeting was opened by the singing of "Come Thou Almighty King", after which Mrs. J. D. Withrow and Miss Gertrude Maultsby conducted the devotional.

During the business session which followed very interesting reports were made by the various committees. The membership committee is very enthusiastic about interesting more parents in P.-T. A. work and it was decided to visit each home in the school district and give each parent a personal invitation to become a member. A special committee was appointed to contact county and state officials in regard to securing a home economics teacher for the school next year.

A very interesting program was given under the direction of Mrs. L. H. Reynolds. The theme for the year as outlined by Mrs. Reynolds was, "Our Child And The Community." Mrs. J. C. Chadwick gave the objection of state P.-T. A. R. B. Cobb discussed Parent Education. Principal T. R. Garrett gave the goals of the P.-T. A. for coming year. They were: 1. To standardize the elementary school. 2. Beautify our grounds and building. 3. To add a new curtain for the stage. 4. To increase both high school and elementary school libraries. 5. To secure a home economics teacher for the school. Mrs. W. C. Biggs, the president, gave an interesting report of the work at the P.-T. A. institute held in Chapel Hill during the summer.

After the meeting the hospital committee invited the P.-T. A. into the school cafeteria where refreshments were served.

Northwest Club Holds Meeting

Members of Northwest home Demonstration Club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Leo Medlin in their regular monthly meeting.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. E. P. Skipper, and following the business session, Mrs. W. E. Biggs had charge of the lesson for the month. She gave a very interesting talk on how to take the drudgery out of wash day and gave illustrations. The following project leaders made seasonal suggestions on their subject: Miss Lois Peterson, gave a very interesting talk on styles for the winter.

The recreation period was in charge of Mrs. T. J. Butler, after which refreshments of cold drinks and cakes were served by the hostesses to the following club members: Mrs. E. R. Skipper, Mrs. Geo. O. Gaylord, Miss Lois Peterson, Mrs. W. C. Biggs, Miss Leah Skipper, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Mrs. J. J. Peterson, Mrs. T. J. Butler, Carol Medlin, Mrs. Leo Medlin, Martha Medlin, Mrs. Vinnie Robbins.

The next regular meeting will be with Mrs. T. M. Williams on Friday November 3, at 2:30 o'clock.

Busy Time For Truck Drivers

With two men in the cab, one to drive while the other sleeps, seafood is being delivered from Southport to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington in less than 24 hours after being taken here.

The trucks load and go, unload and return; often making the round trip well under the supposed regulation time of 48-hours after first leaving here. Inquiry reveals that about all of the trucks made three trips and return last week.

Keziah Named To Honor Post

Hon. Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, has appointed W.

B. Keziah of Southport a member of the Fishery Advisory Committee for the South Atlantic Region.

The Committee is advisory to the Federal Bureau of Fisheries and has for its object the promotion of both commercial and sport fishing along the coast and tributary waters.

LELAND SCHOOL NEWS

The students of the high school have begun an activity period. This period is taken immediately after lunch and it is used for the meetings of various clubs.

LITERARY SOCIETY

About 30 high school students met at the activity period Monday and organized the O'Henry Literary Society under direction of Miss Burnett. The following officers were elected: President, Mary Beck Allen-senior class; vice-president, Roy Hall-junior class; secretary, Mary Wells Rourke-senior class; treasurer, Adrain Skipper-junior class; Gertrude Mills was elected chairman of the program committee; Barbara Adams-chairman of special committee for selecting plays; Odessa Mintz-chairman of constitutional and By-Laws committee; and Elnora Ganey-chairman of the Critic Committee.

These chairmen appointed three members to be on each committee. Each grade in high school was well represented. The society is being sponsored by the senior class and the main objective is to improve oral English. The O'Henry Literary society will meet every first and third Monday.

GLEE CLUB

Under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Waddell the glee club will be organized next Monday at the activity period. The club will meet every second and fourth Monday. The fifteen minute home room period will sometimes be devoted to the practice of the glee club.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Days other than Monday will be devoted to outdoor sports, chief of which will be basketball. Mrs. Cobb will have charge of the girls basketball team and Mr. Wheelless will coach the boys.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

The junior class presented the Rev. Bradshaw of Durham as speaker for the morning. Elnora Ganey read the scripture and lead in prayer. Mr. Bradshaw's message was very impressive, and we are grateful to the junior class for obtaining this able speaker for our chapel program.

The Leland P.-T. A. will meet Tuesday evening, Oct. 17 at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. A very interesting program has been arranged by the program committee, and all friends and parents of the school are invited to be present.

JUNIOR CLASS MEETING

The juniors recently held a class meeting and elected their class officers. They are as follows: President—George Thomas; vice-president, Phillip Dresser; secretary-treasurer, Lillie Williams. The various committees have not yet been appointed.

MONTHLY TESTS

As we near the end of our first month, the high school students are very busy receiving their studies for monthly test. Everyone is anxious to make good grades on his first month's work.

LIBRARIAN ABSENT

The librarian, Mrs. Hope Durham, was absent last Friday on account of the illness of her aunt. We are very glad that Mrs. Durham's aunt is improved enough for her to be back on the job.

BASKETBALL MEETING

The basketball teams have elected officers for the year as follows: Boys: Manager, Francis Hollis; Captain, George Hollis; co-captain, Paul Robbins; secretary-treasurer, Roy Hall.

Girls: manager, Elizabeth King; captain, Sylvia Bordeaux; co-captain, Ethel Douglas. They are expecting to have a good team and will begin practicing in about a week.

GUIDANCE PROGRAM

About thirty minutes per day

is given to our guidance program which is a necessity in every standard high school. Guidance is a process by which the teachers acquaint the individual student with his natural environment. It is training which enables the student to live and make a living to the best of his ability. Mr. Garrett is at the head of the program. He is aided by the other H. S. teachers.

STUDENT ABSENT

Nathan Lee, a first grade student, is very ill at James Walker Memorial Hospital. Mr. Garrett carried several high school boys to the hospital to have blood tests made. Billy Hines blood matched Nathan's and he was given the blood transfusion Tuesday afternoon. We sincerely hope that Nathan will soon be back in school with us.

LUNCH ROOM

We are very proud of our lunch room which opened the second day of school and which has been running very smoothly since that time.

All of the teachers and most of the students in both the H. School and the Elementary school are enjoying the meals served there. We hope to make many improvements in the lunch room this year.

MARSHALL TO BE BURIED TOMORROW

(Continued From Page 1) was ordained a deacon in 1912 by Bishop Leonard, of Ohio, and was ordained a priest in 1914 by Bishop Vincent, of the southern Ohio diocese.

He had served charges in Ohio, Kentucky, Texas and North Carolina.

Last year Mr. Marshall received nationwide publicity for his "church boat", becoming widely known as the waterway evangelist. Although handicapped by poor health during the past few months, he had gone ahead with the program of church expansion which he had mapped out. One new church was opened several months ago at Calabash, a community in which he had done missionary work.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Starkey Marshall, and a daughter, Mrs. Josephine Alice Styron.

R. E. SENTELLE MOVES OFF (Continued from page 1) Mr. Sentelle said that he needed to close his office for four or five months and to take the easy. Recently he has been a victim of poor health, and week he lost his mother. While he made no such statement this morning, friends of Sentelle have expressed hope that he plans to practice law in Waynesville. He will return from time to time to wind up unfinished business in his law office.
