LELAND SCHOOL NEWS

IMPROVEMENT
The elementary school is working very hard to make Leland elementary school a standard department. To attain this goal many improvements must be made. Bulletin boards have been added, book cases for supplementary readers have been installed, cabinets are to be built and several other essential improvements must be made.

LIBRARY BOOKS
We are very proud to announce that an order has been placed with the North Carolina school books depository for $168.00 worth of library books for the elementary school.

CHAPEL PROGRAM
The seventh grade class gave a very interesting chapel program March 5. The program consisted of discussions of famous men born in March and a play about a geography lesson. Everyone enjoyed the play very much.

RECITATION DECLAMATION CONTEST
Next Tuesday morning during the period for chapel we are going to have an elimination for the recitation and declamation contest for O'Henry Literary Club. The teachers will be the judges to pick the best reciters and declaimers for Literary Club night March 14, 1940.
