Win or lose this is Vitt's last season as manager of the Indians. Close friends of his say that if he wins the pennant he will quit and get a job with a rival club (where the pressure isn't so great) and if he fails to win the flag the front office will give him a pink slip. The hot seat of baseball-Cleveland. Play-boy Maxie Bear has been offered a job with the Acquacade' in San Frisco for five weeks at five grand a week. He can't swim anyway he is all wet. In the recent Yank-Bosox series all scribes agreed that Dom DiMaggio outplayed his older brother, Joe, all the way. He played a leading role in the Sox taking four out of five from the powerless Yanks. The Reds will wear a black band around one of their arms the rest of the year in respect to Hershberger. If they win the pennant the mother of the suicide catcher will get his full share. Leland was rained out Sunday. Next Sunday at Legion Stadium a real game is on tap-weather permitting. The league leading Bears will hook up with the winners of the first half- the Pepsi-Cola boys. They split the two-game series in the first half. It will be Lefty Brew or Jim Bullock for the Bears while the beverage boys will rely on "Snag" Allen. He was the hero in defeat as the All-Stars lost to the Pirates Friday night by the score of 2-1. Allen struck out 13 of the semi-pro. boys. So the game Sunday will tell a lot about their arms the rest of the year. Ted Williams has been pitching some in batting practice for the Pink Hose and is going to try his luck on the mound before long. One day when the Sox are way behind or way in front. When Vitt leaves the Tribe Luke Sewell, present coach, is scheduled to take over the troublesome tribe. UNC has eighteen lettermen returning to the football wars this coming season. Twelve are linemen and six backs. The team will average about 190 pounds and will be a little more experienced than that of last year. The team to watch in football this year is Cornell. The whole squad returns. The team they had last year was no slouch. The Pirates and the Cards are really working now so they can end up in the first division. Both will give the Giants a fit for the third slot. They don't expect to get any higher. The crucial series between the Tigers and the Indians is now raging. This will be the climax of the race in the American. That Pitcher Hudson for the Senators is really grooving them in. Last year he was pitching in the Florida State League, a class D. outfit. He made the jump beautifully. The only thing the Nats are playing for is to come out ahead of the Yanks. The Browns may do that. Milnar of the Indians has lost six games this year and of these, three of them have been to the Yanks. Of the 17 games that the A's have played with the Tigers Philadelphia has won ten. Brooklyn fans worry Bill Terry all hours of the night phoning him and asking who he is going to pitch the following day. During July the Dodgers won 16 and lost the same amount. When Rollie Hemsley made an error July 18 it was the first one he had made since September 5, 1939. He had handled 480 chances perfectly between the two misques. That a record for a catcher. The Dodgers have defeated the Giants seven straight times at the Polo Grounds this year. They have managed to win about three in Brooklyn, though. Zeke Bonura of the Cubs rooms by him-practically any music lover. Right off hand we'd say that if the rest of the nation volunteered for military service the way Brunswick has we would have a huge army and one adequate for almost any emergency. There'll be a couple of tennis rackets for sale cheap if Banks Young and Dick Brendle stage a repeat performance of taking six straight sets from Robert Thompson and Bill Styron. Description of a Brunswick county roadhouse: A place with two table, four waitresses and four cabins out back. Dave Ross says that low water has made fishing in Waccamaw river mighty sorry this summer.

One of the most pleasing radio programs to be heard on the daytime waves is the orchestra of Allen Roth. The band is semi-symphonic and plays all types of music, covering the desires of availability of large spaces for maneuver purposes. Advocates of compulsory training attempted to answer the charges that compulsion was repugnant to the democratic principles by calling attention to involuntary jury duty, forced education and tax paying. The protection of trainees civil rights, particularly return to their jobs, will probably be retained as a safeguard. It is officially estimated that it will cost about $400 per year to maintain a trainee for the full course. The mechanical equipment is, of course, an extra item which Uncle Sam will meet. The job protection factor is also important in the procurement field. The National Defense Advisory Commission is working on plans to secure the cooperation of skilled workers who now oppose transfers from their present jobs to posts where their skill may be utilized to greater advantage for the production of essential war supplies. Planned Economy

Pretty soon the tobacco markets will open. Brunswick county farmers will have more spending money than they have enjoyed for several months. But one thing is sure: No one is likely to have more than he can make good use of.

That is why we say practice a program planned economy. Make a list of the things you want and the things you need, then buy them when you are sure of honest treatment and true value. It's a good idea to do your trading at home.

LOST

... 100 beer licenses by retailers in 37 North Carolina counties -- lost because the legalized brewing industry does not want the patronage of outlets that do not operate in strict accordance with law, order and public decency.

Here is protection, a hundredfold, for one of the state's most important sources of tax revenue and employment.

Here is proof, a hundredfold, of our Committee's determination that conditions in retail beer outlets shall be as wholesome as beer itself!
