Mrs. Lucy W. White and Mrs. D. I. Watson, other occupants of the car when it turned over near the Baxter Clemmons farm, escaped with minor bruises and lacerations.

According to report, a cow suddenly came upon the road in front of the automobile in which the young ladies were returning to Southport late in the afternoon from Supply, where they are employed at the county agent's office. In her efforts to miss the cow, Miss Garrett lost

BOLIVIA SCHOOL NEWS

All of the teachers from Bolivia high school attended the district N. C. E. A. meeting in Fayetteville last Friday. Due to this there was no school on Friday.

Thanksgiving holidays will begin on Wednesday afternoon and continue until Monday morning. We hope everyone will have a pleasant time.

Last Wednesday night the Bolivia high school boys played the Cavalry Boys from Wilmington in basketball. Roy Rabon was the high scorer for Bolivia and McCoy for Cavalry. Another game was played by the Bolivia boys and the Leland Owls.

The home economics classes are beginning their home projects. These have to be completed one week after Christmas holidays. The classes will begin Christmas projects next Monday. These projects may be gifts that the girls may make in class.

The Junior American Citizens club was organized in the 11th grade home room Monday morning Nov. 25th, under the supervision of Mrs. Tucker, director. Billy Robbins was appointed chairman by the director, and the following officers were elected: President, Elsie Rabon; 1st vice-pres., Virginia Clemmons; 2nd vice-pres., Junior Hilburn; secretary, Caroline Thorp; color bearer, McKelthan. The following were appointed by the president to aid the flag bearer in various ceremonies which will be presented during the year: Rebekah Thorp, Juanita Lewis, Jimmie Johnson, and Billy Robbins.

The director then gave some information on types of programs that can be presented during the year, which would be of interest to the group.

"LIBRARY"

The circulation of our library books is still splendid. 364 fiction and 379 non-fiction in the past week making a grand total of 743.

The elementary pupils enjoy their new books a great deal.

We have our books back from the Wilmington mending unit and are well pleased with the work that was done on them. 75 damaged books were mended so that they are now nearly as good as new.

Thanksgiving is tomorrow and we have much to be thankful for! Did you ever stop to think what a wonderful school you have? What fine opportunities your children are afforded? Few of us ever think of our school as being anything to be thankful for, but indeed we should be thankful for Bolivia high school.

Many schools are not so fortunate as ours, as a visitor here recently revealed. His schools are struggling to reach the accredited list, but so far their efforts have been in vain.

Last year Bolivia reached a long anticipated goal—to have its elementary as well as its high school department added to the accredited school list. Behind this accomplishment was much thought and labor on the part of many.

Fox Hunters From All Over State Begin To Arrive

here nearly a month with a fine pack of hounds which he has been consolidating with the pack of Vallee Frederic. Bud Arthur, another Concord sportsman arrives today. F. B. Frederic of Council will be here with a pack of 12 dogs. Mr. Ward of Wilmington will bring on 10 more for at least a couple of days of the hunt.

State Treasurer Chas. M. Johnson of Raleigh, an ardent fox hunting fan, wrote he was unable to come, owing to prior engagements. However he wrote his brother, Joe Johnson, at Burgaw, where his dogs are kept, and asked him to bring the pack of some 19 hounds on down here.

There are some reports of the possibility of several fine packs of dogs being brought in from Robeson county, also indications of others from nearby counties, for at least a few days of the week's hunt. Not all of these dog owners will be able to stay out the full week, as the Western Carolina and Tennessee hunters plan to do, but they will be here for two or three days and the expectations are to have considerably more than a hundred hounds after the fox some of the mornings.

Most of the hunts will be staged out on the River Road, between here and Walden's Creek. However, a chase may be put on at Orton some morning and one or more hunts may also take place on the Fort Caswell reservation. H. H. Thomas of Fort Caswell and Churchill Bragaw of Orton have both lined up for full cooperation.

They said that on their trip down, when they got hungry they would go ashore and cook and eat their meal. When they got sleepy, they would throw an anchor overboard and wriggle under the deck of the canoe, drawing the hole tight above them. In rough weather, they said that their beds often did much rolling, rocking and bouncing.

THANKSGIVING

At this Thanksgiving season we have much for which to be thankful.

For health and home and happiness, we are truly grateful. For our right to think and speak and worship as we wish, we give thanks. The last nation who may still enjoy all these fine privileges without the shadow of war, or threat of war, we are thankful on this Thanksgiving that we are Americans, that we are North Carolinians, that we live in Brunswick county.
