

The Lighter Side Of Life

By Our Helpmate

Your columnist was among the 21,000 who saw the Duke-Pitt game on Saturday, and, like the other 20,999 was especially impressed with the Pitt band . . . No stodge "stars and stripes" for them . . . They came forth, all 140 pieces with a swing edition of "The Ferry Boat Serenade" . . . Not only that, but their "God Bless America" number was an awe-inspiring sight . . . They even had a statue of liberty (and she was pretty, too) in the center of their star formation . . . To cap it all, they marched double time which made all other bands we've seen and heard a page out of the past . . . Pretty thrilling . . . and it added a lot to the spectacle in Duke Stadium Saturday . . .

We understand that Miss Wilna Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Thomas, of Thomasboro, will have a prominent part in a dramatic production at Woman's College soon . . .

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Master Billy Watts White celebrated his fourth birthday on Monday afternoon with a party at his home.

The house was decorated in the Christmas spirit, the mantle and table being the center of interest.

Games were played during the afternoon after which the birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream. Snap favors were found at each place, adding to the merriment.

Before his guests left, Billy presented each of them with a stocking filled with candy.

Those who were there are Misses Stuart Arrington, Anne Brooks Newton, Charlene Newton, Mary Mintz, and Joy Lynn Bell.

Masters Dickie Doshier, Jackie Newton, Jimmy Jones, Robert Egan Northrop, Bobby Smith, Herby Oberjohann and Rudy Bell.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. W. E. Doshier entertained a few of her friends on Monday night at a party celebrating her birthday.

Bingo was played during the evening after which punch and cake were served.

Mrs. Doshier received many lovely gifts.

Those who were there are mesdames Ida Marshall, Claude Cannon, Sid Veasey, Clarence Crapon, C. E. Taylor, and Misses Annie Zue Newton and Mary Weeks.

THANKSGIVING SUPPER

Misses Irene Robinson and Julia Mae Hewett entertained their friends at Miss Hewett's home last Thursday night. Several interesting games were played.

The hostess served a supper of roast chicken, creamed potatoes, string beans, cheese straws, hot biscuits with butter, fruit cake and coffee to the following guests: Fairlee Lewis, Marie Holden, Hatridge Sermons, Bur-gwin Hewette, Cecil Holden and Wilbur Holden.

mind us that there are still many interesting books in the library to be read.

Most of the faculty members spent the Thanksgiving holidays at their respective homes or with friends.

The Bolivia fifth graders have been corresponding with the boys and girls of the fifth grade in Guilford school located near Greensboro. The Brunswick county pupils have enjoyed telling about such local activities as deer driving, squirrel hunting and their work at school. This has proven to be a stimulating way to learn the form for writing letters, punctuation, sentence and paragraph structure.

The parents of one of the Guilford boys have expressed the desire that their son continue the correspondence throughout the year.

Plans have been made to have a movie at the school Friday night. The name of the picture will be announced later.
