CRANMER-FINCH

The wedding of Mrs. Blanna Mathews Finch, of Raleigh, and James Pearce Cranmer, of Southport, was solemnized at noon Wednesday, June 1, in a private ceremony in the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Robert E. Atkins, Baptist minister, officiating.

Mrs. Cranmer is the daughter of Mrs. William George Mathews, formerly of Virginia, now of Raleigh, and the late William George Mathews, of Clifton Forge, Va., banker and prominent business man, who was president of the Virginia Public Service Company and organizer of the company which acquired and developed the famous National Bridge of Virginia. She was educated at St. Mary's Junior College, Raleigh, and Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Va.

Mr. Cranmer is the son of Judge and Mrs. Edward H. Cranmer, of Southport. He is a graduate of North Carolina State College and a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

After a wedding trip to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., the couple has returned to Southport.

WEDDING RECEPTION

Judge and Mrs. E. H. Cranmer received their friends on Monday night at their home honoring their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Cranmer, who were married recently in Raleigh.

The home was decorated with a profusion of summer flowers. The dining table where ice cream and cake were served was beautifully arranged with a large bowl of larkspur in the center. Candles provided the only light. Punch was served on the sun porch, and gifts were on display in the library.

Guests were greeted at the door and introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. J. W. Thompson and Mrs. C. Ed Taylor. The receiving line was made up of Judge and Mrs. Cranmer and the couple.

Assisting with serving were Mesdames R. I. Mintz, Harold St. George, K. H. Kinsler, J. W. Ruark, M. R. Sanders, James Carr, L. C. Fergus, James Harper, and Misses Marion Watson, Elizabeth Watson, Ethel Farrell, Anna Taylor, and Little Mary

Newton. Others who assisted in various rooms and to say goodbye to the guests were Mesdames C. G. Ruark, George Y. Watson, W. G. Butler and R. B. Thompson.

SURPRISE SHOWER

Miss Ethel Farrell was hostess on Saturday afternoon at a lovely bridge party honoring her cousin, Miss Anna Taylor, whose engagement was recently announced. The party took place in the home of Mrs. George Y. Watson.

A shower of towels, which came as a surprise to the honoree was a feature of the afternoon. Miss Taylor received a number of towels of all kinds.

When the guests arrived they were served ice cream and cake, the ice cream having a wedding bell motif in the center.

The dining room, where the gifts were assembled, was beautifully decorated, the large white wedding bell over the table being the center of interest. The table was arranged with a bowl of white roses in the center with candles surrounding it.

Mrs. Kenneth Kinsler was high scorer and received a bottle of cologne, Miss Elizabeth Watson was second high and Miss Kathryn Johnson, of Winnabow, binged.

Others who were there were Mesdames C. Ed Taylor, Percy J. Farrell, George Y. Watson, Henry Goodwin, J. W. Thompson, R. I. Mintz, Robert Thompson, R. J. Kiddoo, James Harper, and Misses Marion Watson, and Alice Johnson.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Johnnie Fulwood entertained a number of his friends at a party at his home on Saturday afternoon from three until five the occasion being his tenth birthday.

After enjoying games and contests the guests were served delicious ice cream and cake, as refreshments. There were fourteen girls and boys present.

The Lighter Side Of Life

Our Helpmate

Tho' the local Red Cross sewing unit is only about halfway through its present quota, the fall quota is already here and its two and a half times bigger than the present one.

J. W. Lancaster very kindly had the huge packing boxes taken from the station to the sewing room where they will await the departure of the present quota before the boxes are even opened.

Two large boxes have already been shipped and the volunteer workers are trying to get off a box of ten layettes this week.

The call is still urgent for volunteer workers at the serving room in the city hall and the days are still Monday and Thursday. The faithful few remain the only workers so it seems our little society page editorial on the disgrace of Southport's reaction to Britain's crying need did no good whatever.

It's discouraging... but maybe someone will read this and show up Thursday... we hope so, anyway.

How's Your PICK-UP?
Do you pick up the receiver promptly when your telephone rings, or do you sometimes delay a little? You know, unless you answer a call just as soon as you can, the calling party may think you're absent and hang up... And it might be an important call you've missed.
And how about your HANG-UP?
When making a call, be slow to hang up if you don't get an answer immediately. The person you're calling may be some distance away from his telephone or otherwise unable to answer promptly. So allow his telephone to ring until you're sure no one is going to answer. Just a few moments waiting on your part will save you time in the long run, because you'll complete more calls.
BE QUICK ON THE PICK-UP... SLOW ON THE HANG-UP... And you'll get more satisfaction from your telephone service
