Brown-Taylor Vows Spoken Here Monday

In a beautiful ceremony on Monday evening at Trinity Methodist Church, Miss Anna Mercer Taylor became the bride of Earl Brown, pastor of the church, performed the marriage.

The church was lighted by candles for the occasion. White chandeliers in tall baskets were on either side of the altar, candelabra formed an arch in back, and flowers were in the windows and around the chancel. Ferns formed a pattern on the white background of the chancel.

Before the wedding Mrs. R. I. C. Taylor played Polonaise in C major and Fantasia Impromptu, both by Chopin, and the waltz by Liszt. During the ceremony she played To A Wild Swan by McDowell. Immediately following the entrance of the bride party Mrs. H. C. Corlette sang Serenade by Schubert and the Secret Mystery of Life by Victor Herbert.

The bride was attended by Miss Martha Harris, of Macon, as maid-of-honor. Her sister, Mrs. James Harper, was her matron-of-honor. Her bridesmaids were Miss Muriel Ketchum, of Jacksonville, and Miss Lois Jane Bussell. They wore gowns in pastel shades of marquisette made with silk skirts and short puffed sleeves. They carried colonial bouquets in shades contrasting with their gowns and wore nosegays in their hair.

The bride, lovely in a white gown with long train, entered on the arm of her father. She wore a shirred satin cap with veil of illusion caught at the back with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a showered colonial of gardenias and carnations.

The groom had as his best man, Elmer H. Hammar, Jr., of Bragg. Groomsman were Andrew G. Follat, of Yorkers, New York, and James Harper.

Little James Harper, III, was the ring-bearer.

The bride's mother wore green tulle chiffon with a shirred corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Earl Brown, wore pink taffeta with a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ed. Taylor. She attended Greensboro College for two years, then received her diploma from East Carolina Teach-

Taylor of Winnabow; Mrs. Maultsby, Miss Daisy Bell Maultsby, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kopp, of Bolivia.

BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. J. W. Ruark and Mrs. H. W. Hood were joint hostesses on Friday morning in the home of Mrs. Ruark. Bridge was played during the morning. Sandwiches and coca cola were served between progressions.

The prizes were flower arrangements of various kinds. Mrs. Pearce Cranmer, a recent bride, was honor guest and received a large pottery vase with hydrangeas. High score prize, a low arrangement with gardenias, was won by Mrs. Martin McCall. Miss Winnie Willis was second and received miniature shoes with mixed flowers. Low score prize went to Mrs. E. H. Cranmer and was a wooden bowl with dahlias. Mrs. Frank St. George, of Charleston, S. C. was given handkerchiefs as guest prize.

Others there were: Mesdames J. W. Thompson, Kenneth Kinsler, E. H. Arrington, J. D. Sutton, J. G. Christian, Robert Thompson, M. R. Sanders, C. C. Cannon, C. Gunnerson, Robert St. George, Roy McKeithan, L. T. Yaskell, W. R. Styrton, W. R. Lingle, Prince O. Brien, J. E. Carr, E. J. Prevatte and Miss Wilma Barnett.

HONOR'S BRIDE

Mrs. James Prevatte honored Mrs. Earl Brown, whose wedding took place on Monday, at a bridge party on Friday afternoon.

The bride was given a lemon fork in her pattern. Mrs. Pearce Cranmer, also a recent bride, was presented with a linen guest towel. High scorer was Mrs. J. W. Thompson and Mrs. James Harper binged, both prizes being double decks of cards.

Other guests were Mesdames R. J. Kiddoo, Kenneth Kinsler, Roy McKeithan, R. I. Mintz, E. H. Arrington, E. H. Cranmer and Misses Elizabeth Watson and Marion Watson.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Carol Ann Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wolfe, entertained a number of her friends at a party at her home on Friday afternoon, June 27th, the occasion being her third birthday.

After enjoying games and playing with toys, the guests were invited into the dining room which was attractively arranged with summer flowers the color scheme of pink and white being carried out. The table was centered with a lovely white cake, upon which was written "Happy Birthday" in pink, and also containing three pink candles and 3 little love birds. Ice cream and cakes were served as refreshments, and each guest was presented a favor, pink and white baskets one filled with pink and white mints and the other with pop corn. The honoree received many attractive gifts.

Those present were: Bettie McGlamory, Vera Ann Willis, Pat Marlowe, Alice Brown, Mary Ann Russ, Bernice Phelps, Jackie Larsen, Bobby Smith, Jackie Russ, Neil Lewis, William Webb, Jr., Darrell and G. W. Fisher, Alfred and Sam Pinner Newton, Billy Hanchey and Allen and Louise Hewett of Supply.

The Lighter Side Of Life

By Our Helpmate

We were afraid that the Red Cross was given too much space in this column . . . but it remained for one of our most constant readers to call us down about it . . .

It was this way . . . Last Wednesday, while the paper was going to press, Taylor, one of the lino-type operators in Whiteville, called the editor over and what followed we quote . . . Says Taylor, "I want you to tell Mrs. Harper that I read her column every week (he has to, because he sets it up) and you tell her that if it was so's I could get off I'd sue you over and help those ladies get through with that sewing."

Mrs. Mintz presented the bride with four ice tea glasses in her pattern . . .

How To Grow Quick Pastures

Guy A. Cardwell, General Agricultural Agent A. C. L. Railroad Co.

Drought conditions may have cut the grazing possibilities of pastures on your farm and prevented the seeding of summer grazing crops. If such is the case it is suggested that you get ready to plant quick growing crops such as pearl millet and Sudan grass as soon as moisture conditions permit.

Sudan grass can be seeded before July 1st at the rate of 40 pounds of seed per acre and grazing can be had from 40 days after seeding until frost.

Pearl or cattail millet is a hot weather plant and can be seeded any time from early season through July. Thirty to forty pounds of seed per acre may be broadcast. If seeded with a grain drill or planted in rows 20 to 22 inches apart, 20 pounds should answer your purpose. Millet is usually ready to graze within 4 to 6 weeks after seeding. It will furnish controlled grazing when the plants are 8 to 12 inches high. Allow the cow to graze 30 minutes after each milking, increasing the time gradually as growth permits until the cows are allowed on the millet long enough to get a good "fill".

These temporary pastures may also be planted for hogs. Alternate rows of either Sudan grass or millet, and Biloxi soybeans will furnish excellent grazing for sows and their litters as well as for growing pigs. It is a little late for soybeans but if planted shortly this crop, with millet or Sudan grass, will furnish a lot of grazing.

If Biloxi soybeans are mixed with cane, Japanese seeded ribbon variety (sometimes called Texas seeded ribbon) planted in alternate rows at the rate of one-third soybeans to two-thirds cane, this mixture makes excellent silage, practically equal to corn silage.

The quick growing crops referred to, if planted soon, may save you and your stock from a shortage of feed.

GOVERNOR BROUGHTON WILLSPEAK AT 4-H SHORT COURSE

Governor J. M. Broughton will make his first appearance at an annual State 4-H Short Course when he speaks on the Achievement Day program of the rural youth meeting at N. C. State College on August 1. The 1941 4-H Short Course will open on Monday, July 28, and continue through Saturday morning, August 2.

L. R. Harrill, State 4-H Club leader, and Miss Frances MacGregor, assistant State leader, predict that more than 1,000 boys and girls will attend. Last year's short course attracted 990 youths and club leaders from 96 counties. "We are hoping that every one of North Carolina's 100 counties will be represented this year," Harrill said.

FARMERS ARE TOLD HOW TO REDUCE 'BAD EGGS'

A bad egg is just a good egg gone wrong, says T. T. Brown, Extension poultry specialist of N. C. State College, "but when 175 million dozen eggs go bad—as they do each year in the United States—that's something to worry about," he added.

Brown said that the way to prevent this tremendous egg loss is to follow good production methods on the farm, and good methods of handling eggs from the nest to the consumer. The poultrymen gives some suggestions on how producers can handle their flocks and eggs to help cut down this loss, and save food for defense.

- (1) Keep strong, healthy, vigorous hens and care for them properly.
- (2) produce infertile eggs after the hatching season is over.
- (3) gather eggs at least twice a day in cool weather and not less than three times a day in hot weather.
- (4) keep eggs clean and in a cool fairly moist place, and
- (5) market eggs frequently.

State Welfare Grants Increase

Public Assistance Payments Show Nearly Half Million Dollars Increase For This Year

Public assistance payments for the fiscal year ending June 30 were $627,340 higher than the previous year, Nathan H. Yelton, director of the division of the state welfare department handling old age and dependent children funds, said this week.

For 1940-41 the total paid farm federal, state and local funds was $6,416,528 as against $5,768,188 spent last year. Of the 1940-41 amount, $476,177 went to needy old people over 65 years of age, of whom 37,734 received checks averaging $10.19 out of the $384,385 distributed in this category in June.

Last year total old age assistance payments amounted to $4,179,267. The June figures for old age assistance included payments averaging $25.52 and amounting to a total of $15,029 going to 589 widows of Confederate veterans who had met public assistance requirements and had been transferred from the State pension rolls.

In June, 23,733 dependent children received an average payment of $7.06 in the total spent for the month of $167,595. Total payments to children during the fiscal year amounted to $1,940,351, up considerably from the $1,608,961 spent during fiscal 1939-40.

Fifty-five counties shared in the $119,564 spent from the equalization fund set up to aid local units whose tax assessment of ten cents on the $100 property valuation was insufficient to meet the county's share of expenditures. The fund paid three-fourths of the extra money necessary to meet the county expenditure.

In the equalizing fund $83,171 went for old age assistance leveling, and $36,393 was allowed to aid to dependent children.

All funds are made up jointly by federal, state and local units, the national government contributing.

In marketing eggs, Brown recommends that all cracked, dirty and very small or very large eggs be sorted out. Eggs should not be washed. They should be packed when cool—never with the animal heat in them—and they should be packed with the large end up. Egg quality is essential for better prices, and selling on a quality or graded basis encourages production of better eggs.
