

Cape Fear Club Meeting Held

Last Wednesday at 3:4 o'clock the Cape Fear Club had its recreational meeting at the cottage on Goldens Beach. Part of club members enjoyed going in bathing and every one enjoyed watching the fishermen haul in their large catches of mullets. Pictures were taken of club members. Miss Eak-ers had the misfortune of losing her pocket book or forgetting to pick it up where she put it down. After a lovely time on the beach, all gathered in Mrs. McRacken's cottage and spread their picnic lunch on the dining table. It was a picnic with a delicious picnic supper. There was a great variety of foods - fried chicken, sandwiches of all kinds, salads, cakes, and lemonade.

Mrs. John Ramseur returned thanks before the meal began. Everyone was enjoying this picnic supper when one of the men from the fishermen's camp came up and ask if any of the ladies had lost anything. When we again heard Miss Eakes' voice she said "my pocket book, thanks to those folks who were kind enough to return it after finding it." After finishing the picnic supper, some of the members took turns in washing up the dishes that be-long to the cottage and closing up the house. Motoring back to their homes, everyone declared they had a wonderful time.

Those present at the meeting were: Mrs. Henry Smith, Pauline Smith, Mrs. Herman Smith, Mrs. John Ramseur, Mr. and Mrs. Gil-berth Reid and two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Harrison and daughter, Miss Thelma McRacken, Mrs.

Thompson McRacken and three daughters, Ann, Becky and Duckey, Mrs. Adams and daughter, Miss Eakes, Lillian Collins. The club was glad to have visitors.

The club will hold its October meeting with Mrs. Thelma Harrison, which will end up one year's work since organizing Cape Fear Club.

ern North Carolina; tobacco growing and general farming is also carried on extensively.

Clarkton, another tobacco-marketing town, has E. H. Munroe as cashier of the branch of the Waccamaw Bank and Trust Company. M. F. Allen, Jr., son of the cashier of the bank at Rose Hill, is cashier of the Kennansville branch. The town is a great trade center for tobacco and truck growers.

YOUNGEST BRANCH

The Holly Ridge branch is the youngest limb of the steadily growing banking tree. It was organized mainly to take care of the growing business created by the founding of Camp Davis. G. W. Bowers is cashier of this institution.

O'Brien said that "the remarkable story of the bank progress, especially during the past few years, is duplicated by conditions in almost every line of business and industry in the banking area. Both farming and business progress is increasing on every hand. The story of the bank merely reflects conditions that exist in lower southeastern North Carolina."

At none of the bank's branches, except at Holly Ridge, where the business is still young and relatively small, can any of the progress be laid to anything except business and farming conditions. The patronage of the main bank and all other branches is composed largely of farmers. None of the banks is located in towns of more than approximately 3,000 civic population.

THE HOG ENLISTS TOO!

AMERICA can feel proud of the fact that everyone . . . everyone in the livestock industry . . . has enlisted in our determined VICTORY Drive.

For instance . . . Uncle Sam strongly urged increased pork production. And farmers responded by stepping up hog breeding so there will be adequate supplies of pork and pork products for the boys at the front, for Lease-Lend and for the home front.

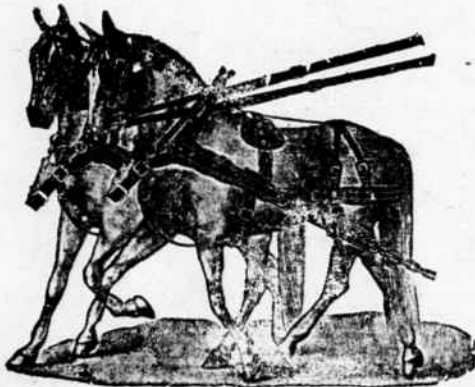

We are glad to have a part in this great patriotic movement . . . acting as recruiting agents to enlisting hogs.

So for top ranking prices send your hog selections to . . .

IS LABOR SHORT ON YOUR FARM?

GIVE THE BANK A

Chance to Help

The war is increasing the demand for food. But the war is taking thousands of husky lads away from the farm.

As you know, food doesn't grow by itself. You will have to make up for lost man power by using more fertilizer, adding labor-saving machinery, and keeping business-like records.

A checking account in the Waccamaw Bank and the use of sound, economical credit available here will provide these substitutes for labor on your farm.
