

The Lighter Side Of Life

By Our Helmut

Something has happened that ought to mind the fact the time for setting out bulbs is here, but not to worry.

The other day we were examining a closet, a chest of drawers, in which we had stored bulbs of various kinds. Seeing something strange, we looked closer to find that the tops of the bulbs in which the bulbs are stored were sitting up in the air. The bulbs had sprouted, not waiting for our convenience in setting them out. Even nature conspires to remind us how slow we are.

HONOR MISS WATSON

Miss Elizabeth Watson, bride-elect of this month, was honored by the F. F. club on Friday night with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. W. G. Butler.

The gifts were arranged on the dining table in a novel and attractive way. A paper-covered flower pot was the center of interest with ribbons from the spout to the gifts. The wedding March was played as the bride-elect went into the dining room.

Punch and cake were served to the following guests: Mesdames George Y. Watson, C. G. Ruark, Robert St. George, I. B. Bussells, Prince O'Brien, J. W. Ruark, Clyde Baker, F. H. Cranmer, R. L. Brown, D. I. Watson, Frank M. Niernsee, Annie K. Vitou, and Misses Annie May Woodside, Libby O'Brien, Louise Asbury, Genevieve Eakes and Zipporah Rice.

GRIFFIN-WATSON

The following announcement is being sent this week to out-of-town friends and relatives of the couple.

Mrs. George Yandell Watson requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth Louise, to Mr. John Henry Griffin on Saturday evening, the nineteenth of December at six o'clock, Trinity Methodist church, Southport.

Although no invitations are being sent in town, friends of the couple are invited to attend the wedding.

TOWEL SHOWER

Mrs. Prince O'Brien and Miss Libby O'Brien were hostesses on Friday night at their home honoring Miss Elizabeth Watson, bride-elect.

Bridge and bingo were played during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. Wiley Wells, Mrs. W. G. Butler, Mrs. Dallas Pigott,

Miss Genevieve Eakes, Mrs. Frank M. Niernsee, and Mrs. D. I. Watson.

A shower of towels was presented to Miss Watson from those present. These were, in addition to those named above, Mesdames George Y. Watson, I. B. Bussells, R. S. Harrison, Annie K. Vitou, Harry Corlette, C. G. Ruark, Robert St. George, H. A. Jones, H. H. Thomas, Clyde Baker, F. P. Plaxco, and Miss Louise Watson.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches and coffee.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. David McKeithan, of Bolivia, announce the birth of a son on Doshier Memorial Hospital on Sunday, December 6.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy to us during the illness and death of wife and mother.

J. J. Pigott and Children.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SHERIFF WILLETTS

Having been elected and now inducted into office, I wish to use this means of extending my thanks to those who gave me support in the recent election. Now I am asking the support of all law-abiding people and the good will of all citizens in an effort to have the proper law enforcement in our county.

It will be my purpose, and that of my deputies, to co-operate with all law enforcement agencies, State and Federal, and our Board of County Commissioners in an effort to preserve peace, good order and a proper observance of the law, in order that our most humble citizen may feel protected and safe anywhere in our county.

So far, I have chosen former sheriff F. L. Lewis, resident at Southport as my jailor and deputy. In the near future I propose appointing other deputy sheriffs, for whom I respectfully ask due consideration, even when we are called upon to perform unpleasant duties.

Respectfully,
C. P. WILLETTS, Sheriff
