Farmers Advised To Order Fertilizer

RALEIGH — D. S. Coltrane, assistant to the Commissioner of Agriculture, has urged farmers to order their fertilizer as soon as possible in order to avoid bottlenecks in manufacture and distribution next spring.

"By ordering now, the farmer may be sure of an adequate supply and he will also render a patriotic service by evening the load, helping to get the most out of experienced labor," said Coltrane.

He predicted there will be more phosphate, more potash, and less nitrogen this year.

RALEIGH — The War Food Administration has informed the State Department of Agriculture that the parity price for peanuts on September 15 has been computed at $8.16 per cwt., or 65 cents above the $7.51 farmers received for peanuts marketed two weeks ago. Parity a year ago was $7.87, 72 cents more than the price received by the producer at that time.

State Museum Has Many Visitors

RALEIGH — Approximately a quarter of a million people visited the State Museum from September 30, 1942 to September 30, 1944, Harry Davis, director, reports.

Davis explained that all visitors are requested to register and the estimate was based on registration figures.

Of the 250,000 visitors, around 30,000 came on Sunday. Army and Navy visitors accounted for about 35,000 visits. "In looking ahead, there is every reason to estimate that Museum attendance will increase 50 and 100 per cent when travel restrictions are lifted," said Davis.

Sugar Supply For Civilians Called 'Sour'

RALEIGH, Oct. 2.—The civilian sugar supply situation was described as "sour" today by Theodore S. Johnson, district director of the Raleigh Office of Price Administration.

With many boards in eastern North Carolina besieged with requests for more canning sugar, Johnson said: "The sugar supply situation is such that the allowance for home canning cannot be increased. There simply isn't enough sugar on hand or in sight in the United States to permit authorization of a larger maximum home canning allowance."

Sugar refineries, working on 24-hour schedules, were described as being six to eight weeks behind schedule because of manpower shortages.

Johnson appealed to all citizens to use all practical means of sugar conservation and to housewives to use regular allotments of sugar, wherever possible, to can this year's bumper fruit crop.

Edwin Pate, president of the John McNair Company of Laurinburg is operating 4 herds of grade Aberdeen-Angus cattle on farms in Scotland, Robeson, and Richmond counties.
