McCALL-ENSLEY
 Marriage of Miss Catherine Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Ensley of Wilmington, to Mr. Call, son of Mrs. F. Jones of Southport, took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Baptist church of Wilmington. The Rev. Lee Blanton, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister.

Rupert L. Eason, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Jessie Byers was bridesmaid. The ceremony was attended by Mrs. Douglas Jones, as best man, and by E. S. Ensley, C. Cassidy, and Carlton Mott as witnesses.

Reception was given at the home of the bride immediately following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Call are in Southport with the groom's family.

WOMAN'S CLUB HAD INTERESTING MEETING
 The Community Clubhouse was the scene of an interesting contest last Wednesday when Mrs. Fields, Citizenship chairman, conducted a Current Events quiz at the Woman's club meeting.

H. B. Smith was the winner of the contest as she guessed correctly 44 of the 51 questions. The magazine awarded her the prize of four months subscription to the magazine.

Amie K. Vitou served coffee and cookies to the following members and guests: Mrs. E. M. McEachern, Mrs. Jessie Harper, Miss Margaret Parkhill, Mrs. H. B. Smith, Mrs. R. L. Thompson, Miss Susie Newton, Mrs. W. G. Butler, Mrs. C. Ed Taylor, Mrs. E. J. Prevatte, Mrs. R. B. Thompson, Mrs. Harold St. George, Mrs. Bracie Lewis with nineteen members and one visitor present. The program was presented by Mrs. Jeanne Fields who made a talk on "Lessons from the Life of Lincoln."

KING'S DAUGHTERS
 The February meeting of the King's Daughters was held with Mrs. Lizzie Southerland on Thursday night. The devotional was given by Mrs. C. Ed Taylor with the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Clifton Arnold, following with her reports.

Other members present were Adams, Mrs. Lanie Southerland, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Maggie Aldridge. Visitors included Mrs. Mrs. Minnie Smith, and Mrs. Lee Jessie Coopridger and Mrs. Coleman.

Russian tea and cookies were served. The valentines which were used as favors were signed by those who were there and sent to Mrs. R. W. Davis, Sr.

BAPTIST CIRCLES HOLD MEETINGS
 The Circles of the Baptist W. M. S. met last Tuesday night and held their various programs.

Circle No. 1 met with Miss Evelyn Smith and Mrs. Joe Wilmouth at the home of Miss Smith. There were eighteen members present and a program emphasizing the Baptist's Centennial Crusade was presented with Mrs. Philip Golden, the program chairman, in charge. Mrs. A. L. Brown and Mrs. Lee Aldridge also took part on the program.

Circle No. 11 met with Mrs. R. M. Coopridger. There were twelve members present and a program on Religious Liberty was presented. Miss Marjorie Potter and Mrs. Clifton Arnold made short talks. Mrs. L. W. Clemmons read an appropriate poem and little Miss Nancy Jo Coopridger sang a solo.

Circle No. III met with Mrs. Bracie Lewis with nineteen members and one visitor present. The program was presented by Mrs. Jeanne Fields who made a talk on "Lessons from the Life of Lincoln."

TEEN AGE CLUB HAS A BANQUET
 The Teen Age Club had its first quarterly banquet at 7:30 on February 2 at the Masonic Hall. The theme of the banquet was candlelight and the room was very attractively decorated with pine boughs and red and white candles.

About seventy-five teensters and their guests were present, the girls wearing formal gowns.

After a word of welcome from Toastmaster Douglas Jones, Miss Betty Todd Corlette sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Dallas Pigott, and Miss Dorothy Ward rendered a solo at the piano.

The musical program was followed by the installation of the new officers and executive chairman of the club. The guest speaker, J. B. Hunting, secretary of the Wilmington YMCA, then addressed the teensters. Also present was John Bunn, head of the HI-Y work in Wilmington.

After a group song the teensters and guests left, having had a very enjoyable evening.

AUXILIARY HAS A FINE MEETING
 The Presbyterian Auxiliary met on last Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Frank Plaxco. Mrs. Jessie Harper, the president, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. Clayton Hickman had charge of the devotional and Mrs. Eva Wolfe had charge of the program, the subject of which was "Foreign Missions."

After the meeting delicious cake and coffee were served to the following members: Mrs. Erlene Garrish, Mrs. Clayton Hickman, Mrs. Jessie Harper, Miss Maude Inman, Mrs. Mattie Marlowe, Mrs. W. B. Moore, Mrs. Miriam Newton, Mrs. James Pinner, Mrs. Doris Stephens, Mrs. Gladys Wolfe, Mrs. Kathleen Webb, and Mrs. Odessa Williams.

The next meeting will be held the second Tuesday in March with Mrs. Gladys Wolfe.

SURPRISE PARTY
 Mrs. Frederick Doshier and Mrs. D. E. Arthur gave a surprise party for Mrs. Annie D. Parker on her 78th birthday. A large number of friends were present and games were played during the evening.

SEA SCOUT DINNER
 Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McEachern entertained at a formal dinner on Monday night at their home in honor of the sea scouts.

TACKY PARTY
 Mrs. D. E. Arthur and Mrs. Walter Lewis were hostesses at a Tacky party at their home on Wednesday night. The guests arrived dressed in their tackiest manner and a great deal of fun was enjoyed during the evening. Games were played and prizes were awarded to the man and woman who were dressed the tackiest. These were won by Mrs. Gus McNeil and J. W. Stanley.

The hostesses served cake and punch to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Gus McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Ryley Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hood, Mrs. D.
