Examination For Shallotte Postmaster

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an open competitive examination to fill the vacancy in the position of postmaster at the post office at Shallotte.

In order to be eligible for the examination, an applicant must be a citizen of, or owe allegiance to, the United States; must have actually resided within the delivery of the post office for which the examination is held for at least 1 year immediately preceding the date fixed for the close of receipt of applications; must be in good physical condition; and must be within the prescribed age limits. The competition is open to both men and women. The base salary is $2,200.00.

Applicants will be required to assemble in an examination room for written tests, and will also be rated on their education and business or professional experience, general qualifications and suitability. The Civil Service Commission will make an impartial inquiry among representative patrons of the office, both men and women, concerning the experience, ability, and character of each applicant, and the evidence thus secured will be considered in determining the ratings to be assigned to the applicants. The Commission is not interested in the political, religious, or fraternal affiliations of any applicant.

Full information and application forms may be obtained at the Shallotte post office. Applications must be on file in the office of the Commission at Washington 25, D. C., not later than August 9, 1945.
