fixed at $500.00.

The bond of $1,000 for James Johnson, of Myrtle Beach, was continued. Johnson was the owner and alleged driver of the passenger car that crashed into the rear of the parked Land truck. James Todd, a war veteran in the Johnson car, was instantly killed. His father, Onzie B. Todd, a war veteran and died several days later in a hospital in Wilmington.

The Jackie's Creek bridge on Route 17 is a narrow structure, practically impossible for a truck and a car to pass over with safety at the same time. Land, who knew the narrow bridge, is said to have driven to one side of the highway and halted his truck to permit an approaching truck loaded with pulpwood to pass.

Johnson crashed into the rear of the Land truck.

The wreck occurred at 7 o'clock at night, when it is said to have been quite dark. It is charged that Land's negligence is due to his failure to have had a tail light burning on the rear of his halted truck.

of a number that have stopped here this winter have asked regarding the possibilities of facilities that would enable them to stay longer. Captains and owners of several of these boats have estimated that this fall and winter would see upwards of a thousand yachts coming south in the fall and returning in the spring. This and other local business should make the local situation very attractive to the oil and gas distributors.

It is understood that parties interested in creating boat facilities will be here all of next week and that some definite plans may be made for servicing both sport and commercial boats.

The Old Hen's Still Laying

The Younger Generation In Brunswick Poultry Yards Are Very Active With Their Laying Now

Older hens in this county's poultry yards are still laying, but they will get down to producing soon, according to the County Agent. Pullets, on the other hand, are busy at their job of laying eggs. There are believed to be more fresh eggs than are usually found this early in the year.

The Agent is not so optimistic regarding egg prices this year, especially a little later. All available statistics point to there being an over production at other points.

In this county the flocks are possibly smaller than they have been in previous years. Among flocks of laying hens recalled offhand was R. D. Clemmons of Supply, with 400 birds; J. M. Roach, Supply, 500; Mrs. J. L. Bennett, Freeland, 300; Fern Watts, Waccamaw, 400; J. L. Mintz, Ash, 400; Esta Vereen, Freeland, 600 and Mrs. J. E. Dodson, 2,200.

Johnson Explains Ruling On Sugar

Recent Change Does Not Mean That Present Holders Of Books Are To Get A New One

RALEIGH — Recent announcements that sugar ration books will henceforth be issued for all of North Carolina by the OPA district office in Raleigh does not mean that present holders of books will get a new one, Theodore S. Johnson, Director of the Office of Price Administration said today.

Johnson said the announcements simply indicated that returning service people, who have never had ration books, or families having new babies, may apply for sugar ration books by obtaining an application blank at the local board and sending it to the Raleigh Office properly filled out. The same procedure should be followed to replace lost or mutilated books, Johnson said.

A lot of people, he added, thought that new books were being issued to all persons. This is not true.
