ENTERTAIN SERVICEMEN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sullivan gave a party on March 23rd in their new building at Winnabow. The occasion was in honor of the service boys of the community. About 200 people were present with about 40 of these being ex-service men. The event was very much enjoyed and was made doubly so by neighbors and friends wanting to do something for the boys. There was plenty to feed the whole crowd when the good things that the neighbors brought were added up with what Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan had provided. The table was centered with a vase of spring flowers and everyone served themselves. The supper consisted of stewed chicken, fried chicken, rice, potato salad, cold slaw, rolls, cake, hot coffee and soft drinks. The evening was rounded off with a good old time square dance, with some fine music being provided by Joe Reeves, of Leland, and Emil Coitl and Ralph and Hal Langley, of Wilmington.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A surprise party was given in honor of O. B. Sellers, of Supply, on last Thursday, the occasion being his 75th birthday.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to the following guests: Mrs. O. B. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. Rifton Sellers, Mrs. Alton Hewett, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hewett, James Herbert Robinson, Margaret Hewett, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hewett, Mrs. E. M. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Murdie Holden, Mrs. Wilson Arnold, and son, Thomas. Mr. Sellers received many gifts from his guests.

JOINT CELEBRATION

Mrs. Elwood Sullivan entertained her daughter, Barbara Ann, and Mrs. Thomas Young entertained her husband on the evening of March 18, at the home of Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. H. J. Rabon. Birthday cake, assorted cookies and lemonade was served the following guests: Barbara Ann Sullivan, Thomas Young, Mrs. A. J. SURPRISE PARTY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ludlum, near Shallotte, was the scene of a surprise birthday dinner Sunday. Mr. Ludlum was 66-years-old on that day, and most of his children and a number of the grandchildren gathered to celebrate it with him. A big dinner, was part of the day's events.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludlum have raised 11 children, all of whom are still living. All but two of these, Hilton and Eldridge Ludlum, were present for the celebration and dinner.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Lloyd Hewett entertained Saturday in honor of her son, Jimmie, on the occasion of his 6th birthday at their home in Southport. Games and contests were played, after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served the following guests: Pat Ivey, Lolo May Gore, Daisey Varnum, Dorothy Walton, Vera Ann Willis, Robin Ivey, Charles Varnum, Lee Aldridge, Bobby Willis, Jerry Hewett, Mrs. E. F. Gore and Mrs. Pearl Aldridge. The honoree was recipient of many nice presents.

Mrs. Hewett Is Club Hostess

The March meeting of Boon's Neck Club was held with Mrs. Clydie Hewett. The meeting was opened by singing "Lead on O'King Eternal," followed by the collect of Club Women of America. During the business meeting members paid club dues, the poultry leader, Mrs. Roach, read a very interesting letter on how to prevent spreading of diseases. Each member was asked to give a hen to sell or give a dollar for expenses at the Council meeting.

Miss McLamb gave a very interesting demonstration on the correct way of setting a table, after which there followed an interesting discussion. The meeting adjourned to meet again with Mrs. Sidney Hewett on April 23rd. The hostess served delicious refreshments which everyone enjoyed very much. Those present were: Mrs. Carvin Roach, Mrs. B. L. Bullock, Mrs. M. E. Kirby, Mrs. Carry Hewett and Mrs. Eva Holden. The female grasshopper may lay 126 eggs at a time.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for member of the Board of County Commissioners, subject to the will of the voters in the May Primary.

I am a life-long resident of Brunswick county. I have been a worker for the interest of my party since I was old enough to vote, and I have never held public office.

Your influence and support will be greatly appreciated.
