

green, of the Hickmah's Cross Roads community. lost a good tobacco barn full of tobacco by fire last week.

LIKE THEIR FISHING
When Mr. and Mrs. Julian Bishop, of the Horeshoe Quail Farms at Pinehurst, go fishing they both really like to fish. They have been coming to Southport for the past three or four years and always go to the Gulf. Here last week with Capt. Victor E.

Lance, they went out and had rather bad weather. Nothing daunted, they chartered the Moje for two other fishing dates in the near future. Both are devoted to fishing.

TO ENTER STATE
Edward Taylor, who has been attending University of North Carolina since his discharge from the service, is spending the summer with his mother, Mrs. C. Ed Taylor. He will enter State College in September.

RETURNS TO ATLANTA
Miss Lyla Bennett and Miss Ann Ray, of Atlanta, Ga., have been spending two week's vacation with their parents, Mrs. J.
L. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. D.
J. Ray, in the Exum community.
Both of the young ladies are employed in the Atlanta office of the Bell Telephone company.

HEAVY MAJORITY
In the recent tobacco referendum Brunswick growers did as well or better than the rest of the state in piling up a heavy majority for control. Out of 1063 votes cast in Brunswick 1031 were for the three-year control plan.

KILLS ALLIGATORS
Two alligators have been shot in the sound back of Long Beach by Billy Newton during the past week. The larger one of the saurains measured eight-feet in length.

SAYS FINE FISHING
Judge John B. Ward who owns the old Butler mill pond at Longwood says that he has been having some excellent fishing during the past few days. His pond covers 160 acres and is reputed one of the best fishing spots for bass and perch in Waccamaw

COMMENCE HIRING MEN AUGUST 1ST
(Continue from page one)
The jobs will be indefinite in length.

There has already been a large number of applications for positions and those who have applied may stand by for their orders to begin work between now and August 15th, provided they are qualified.

A total employment of about 750 men is expected. Of these it is stated that about 400 will be local labor. Some of the others will be brought in from other points for special tasks in connection with the work of storing the 500 surplus vessels that have been assigned to the Brunswick basin.

FRIGHTENED AWAY BUT STEAL AUTO
driving off.

Without waiting to dress Mr.
Frink and his oldest son, Gene, rushed from the house, got in their truck and started in pursuit. They overtook the car about a mile from the Frink home and the escaping convicts seeing they were being followed, they speed and overturned the car a ditch. Neither were hurt, both fled into the woods.

Officers were called back the hunt. Supt. White bloodhounds and the negroes trailed from where they wrecked car to the Edgewood road and up this road to Ash, where they were
