AT SUMMER HOME
 Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Wells, of Raleigh, are spending the month of August here at their summer home, the former Kate Stuart residence.

ON PLEASURE TRIP
 Mrs. Gladys McKay, of Bolivia, has returned home from a pleasure trip to Roanoke, Natural Bridge, the Shenandoah Valley, Richmond and Harrisonburg, Va., points in West Virginia and Washington, D. C.

RETURN HOME
 Cpl. J. E. Reynolds has returned to his home near Shallotte after about two years in overseas service. He was in the Philippine campaign for 8-months and afterwards in Korea. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reynolds of Shallotte.

NOT THIS HERBERT
 Recorders court proceedings last week told of Herbert Lee Robinson being tried and fined on two separate charges. Herbert Lee Robinson of Supply was disturbed about it. He is a white man and has no court record. The Herbert Lee Robinson who was tried is colored and lives at Leland.

HOME ON LEAVE
 Floyd L. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis of Supply, has returned to New York to resume his duties with the Merchant Marine after spending a ten days leave with his parents. He has spent a year as a merchant seaman and has made a trip overseas. This is his first trip home since leaving to join up.

PROUD PAPA
 On his regular rounds last Tuesday Sgt. Creston H. Rowland, of the Army Recruiting Service in Wilmington, was passing out cigars and making an announcement that had no military bearing. A nine-pound baby daughter had been born to him and Mrs. Rowland in the James Walker Memorial hospital the previous day.

Something to Ponder About
 The little girl was getting her first glimpse of the animals at the zoo. Finally at one cage she stopped to ask:
 "What's that, Mommy?"
 "A kangaroo, a native of Australia," explained the mother.
 "Hmmm!" continued the girl, skeptically "didn't you tell me that Uncle Herman married a native of Australia?"
 A forerunner of the internal combustion engine was a French model which ran by "inflammation of spirit of tar," as benzene was known in 1809.

SOME FUN!

The American Way
 St. Peter—And here is your golden harp.
 Newly Arriver American—How much is the first payment?

Easy
 "Did you find it difficult to find a name for your little son?"
 "No! Certainly not, for we have only one masculine relative in the family that has a fortune!"

Willing Girl
 Mistress—Marie, you were entertaining a man in the kitchen last night, weren't you?
 Marie—That's for him to say, ma'am. But I tried my best.

Fast
 Mrs. Style—I want a hat, but it must be in the latest style.
 Shopman—Kindly take a chair, madam, and wait a few minutes. The fashion is just changing.

Candid
 The fond mother approached the teacher anxiously.
 "Don't you think Randolph will ever learn to draw?"
 "No, madam—that is, unless you harness him to a truck," replied the teacher.

Perhaps
 Husband—"Why is it that we haven't more money in our savings account?"
 Wife: "Do you suppose it's because there're so many ways to spend it and only one way of saving it?"

Overdoing it
 Pretty Caller—Do you think the superintendent will see me now?
 Bookkeeper—Certainly, madam, the superintendent always has time to see pretty girls.

 Pretty Caller—Well, tell him that his wife is here.

Corrected
 Barber—Your hair needs cutting badly, sir.
 Customer—I don't agree with you. It needs cutting nicely this time. You cut it badly last time I was here.

End of Generosity
 "Did you say you expect to find another boy friend before long?" asked the blonde.
 "Absolutely and soon," replied the brunette. "My mind was made up last night when Charles began to talk about going on a buyer's strike."

Not Ripe
 "These eggs are very small," complained the young housewife to her grocer.
 "Straight from the farm this morning, madam," declared the grocer.

"That's the trouble with these farmers," she persisted. "They're so anxious to get their eggs sold they take them off the nest too soon."

Outstanding Success
 An actress came off the stage after a successful first night, and was surprised when the manager handed her a bunch of flowers and a packet of marigold seeds.

"The flowers are from a gentleman in the stalls, and the packet of seeds from a Scotsman in the gallery," was his explanation.

Help Needed!
 "Conductor, will you help me off the train?"
 "Sure. But why?"
 "You see, I'm stout, and have to get off the train backwards. The porter thinks I'm trying to get on and he gives me a shove on again. I'm five stations past my destination now!"

It Passed Him
 An Englishman, visiting in this country, borrowed an automobile from an American friend and was setting out with considerable trepidation to tour the countryside.
 Scrupulously observing all of the roadside admonitions, he presently came to one that read "Drive Carefully! This is YOUR!"
 "Righto!" said our Englishman, slowing down to a conservative 20 miles "But I was mused, "how do you suppose I knew I was over here?"
