The bride was attired in a long white wedding gown and veil and made a picture in her brunette loveliness. Her only ornament was a diamond necklace, a gift from her grandmother, Mrs. L. Miller of New York, who first wore the necklace as a bride and who was present at the ceremony.

Miss Robinson, the maid of honor, was dressed in green. The bridesmaids, Miss Oliver and Miss Gaskins, wore yellow gowns and Miss Reese and Miss Swan were in green.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the community building across from the church. It was beautifully decorated with gladiolas and other flowers. Ice cream, cake and mints were served.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Watkins left for a week's honeymoon trip to some unannounced destination. They will be at home in Norfolk, Va., where the groom is in business, after September 1.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Pete Singletary entertained a number of friends at a birthday party Saturday afternoon at Stanbury. His Aunt Hattie Galloway, whose birthday was the following day, was a guest of honor.

A venier roast was enjoyed by all. Soft drinks were served for refreshments and several games were played. Both honorees received a number of lovely gifts.

Those attending were: Gebe Galloway, R. C. Dixon, Bobby Fay Singletary, Betty Ann Singletary, Cereta Dixon, Marelene Dixon, Fay Carol Galloway, Thomas Galloway, Hubert Varnum, Hune Clyde Caison, Alline Galloway, Billie Varnum, Emmie Swain, Etha Galloway, Tennis
