BRIDE HONORED
 Miss Marie Swan entertained a very delightful shower Thursday night in her home, honoring Miss Walter Jones, the bride. Miss Gloria Fay Moore. Several contests were played and prizes awarded, after which the bride and groom were invited to the room for refreshments. The bride in the center of a small group surrounded with flowers and miniature lights formed a very pretty picture. Mrs. Jones received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Those present were: Mrs. Chas. Aldridge, Mrs. Merritt More, Mrs. Boyd Moore, Mrs. Jack Hughes, Mrs. W. S. Davis, J. V. Davis, Mrs. Louis Hardee, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. M. M. Hood, Mrs. Orville Willis, Mrs. Worth Ward, Mrs. Roger Clemmons, Mrs. Ed Weeks, Mrs. M. McHose, Mrs. Hunter Ellington and Mrs. J. G. Swan, Misses Martha Easley, Elouise St. George, Doris Corlette, Marion Frink, Loraine Hewett and Louise Rees.

Back-To-School

Last Monday, 3,000 of your boys and girls returned to their classes in Brunswick County. Each child will be offered a curriculum that will enable them to compete with the obstacles of life. Now, some of this 9000 will take advantage of what they can get today—others will not.

The same theory may apply to you. Ask yourself this simple but important question? Do you heed to your subconscious mind? Are you trying to make life more secure? For example, do you take chances, such as driving your auto with slick tires? Or do you prepare your tires to cope with the danger?

There is one thing that's sure—and you don't have to go to school to learn it . . .

It Is Safer and More Economical to Have Your
