WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club held its first literature meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. Robert Thompson on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Herbert Baker was the speaker for the afternoon and he made an interesting talk on "Youth," stressing the responsibilities which the church has for the training of young people.

Musical selections were presented by several of the younger musicians. Miss Harriet Corlette played "Harp and Organ" and a trio, composed of Misses Betty Corlette, Libby O'Brien and Barbara Weeks, sang "Autumn" accompanied by Mrs. Dallas Pigott.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. R. L. Thompson, Mrs. Fred Willing, Mrs. Blanche Weeks and Mrs. James Carr. They served punch and assorted sandwiches to the ladies present.

Mrs. Weeks presided at the punch bowl and the other ladies assisted at the beautifully arranged table.

Hardee boats, at Southport.

FINE SUPPER

The oyster supper given by the Shallotte Post American Legion at Shallotte Point Friday night was a great success, especially in the abundance and excellent quality of the oyster and other provender. About 50 or 60 Legion and other ex-service men were present, also a large number of ladies. The folks responsible for getting and preparing the oysters did their work well. Several bushels of the bivalves were left over after all had their fill.

HINTS TO Farm Folks

BY RUTH CURRENT

BY VERA STANTON
 Labels on cans and packages give the exact weight of contents and should be used as a guide in estimating cost. Check cost per ounce or pound.

The cost of food is no measure of its food value. For example: cheap cuts of meat have the same food value as expensive cuts from the same animal. Brown and white eggs have the same food value.

A well-centered yolk is what every cook wants in a hard-cooked egg for deviling or stuffing. If the yolk is too far offside, the white is likely to break through during the stuffing process. The quality of the egg rather than the position of the yolk, say poultry specialists. In an egg of Grade A or AA quality, the white is thick and holds the yolk in place. As the quality deteriorates from lack of refrigeration and aging, the white becomes thinner and allows the yolk to float. When such an egg is cooked on its side, the yolk rises to the upper side of the shell.

Keep the extra juices from cooked vegetables in your refrigerator for use in your next soup.

The new school lunch act offers an opportunity for all children to get more adequate food than they've been having. The passage of the new school lunch bill widens the opportunity for more states and communities to take part. Washington can't do the school lunch job alone. Nor under the law is it permitted to do so, if it would. This emphasis on local responsibility is, as it should be, in the interest of democracy and a stronger school lunch program.
