The Martin Behrman, an American Liberty ship, now under charter to the Ishrandtsen company of New York, is still figuring strongly in the International spotlight, with the out-Some mither hazv.

of captain Rudy Gray, a Brunswick county man with many relatives in this section. In the press dispatches his address is given as Southport. Some three weeks ago his ship took on a cargo, valued at three million dollars, and alleged to contain held port of Cheribon.

The Dutch East Indies govarmed guard aboard her and creating a stormy scene with Captain Gray, who charged them with piracy. With command of the vessel taken from him, allegedly by armed force, he went ashore and his vessel one dock to another in Batavia for the purpose of unloading.

the Isbrandtsen Lines, which lease the ship, filed a suit against the Dutch East Indies government for ten million dollars for the alleged unlawful seizure of the ship and cargo. On the other hand the Dutch claim that no law was broken by the seizure of the ship, that its cargo was being stolen from the Dutch govern-
