Mrs. Hewett Is Hostess To Club

The July meeting of Shallotte Village Club was held last week at the home of Mrs. Earl Hewett, club president.

The Collect of Club Women of America was repeated and the song "The Old North State" was sung. The roll was called and minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The secretary is Mrs. William Usher.

Two dollars were taken from the treasury for the delegate to New Amsterdam. "The Tar Heel Garden" was read by Mrs. William Usher and poultry notes were reported on by Mrs. Wilbur Register.

The meeting was then turned over to the Home Agent, Mrs. Elwood Mintz, who gave an interesting talk on "Selection and Buying of House Furnishings". Several games were played and cake and punch were served to the following members: Mrs. Wilbur Register, Mrs. L. J. Williamson, Mrs. James Chadwick, Miss Lottie Sellers, Mrs. William Usher, Mrs. Daisy Browning, Mrs. Boyd Robinson, Mrs. Mintz, and Mrs. Hewett.

Five Cents Is Woman's Name

Who is Five Cents? The question remains unanswered even though Coroner Hugh Nance tried to identify her at the inquest into the axe slaying of Anthem Davis Friday night.

Marie Wilson, a Tabor City colored woman, was on the witness stand and Coroner Nance asked who was with her at a certain time. She named one person and then added, "and Five Cents." Coroner Nance looked surprised and tried to ascertain whether she referred to a nickel or five cents.

"Five Cents, that's what they call her; that's all I know," Marie Wilson said. And Five Cents she is, whoever she is.
