CATHOLIC INFORMATION

When water ran uphill . . . Imagine great rivers rushing uphill—cows munching from treetops as they lazily lay in the air—would-be suicides thwarted in their endeavors to leap from heights!

But why imagine? Were not such things commonplace up until some 200 years ago, when Sir Isaac Newton first formulated the law of gravitation? "Nonsense!" you exclaim. "Newton did not create the law. He merely authoritatively clarified it."

Nonsense, of course—and, dear neighbor, we state this false and foolish logic merely to demonstrate how equally false and foolish it is to believe that the Catholic Church, when it defines a dogma, creates a new supernatural truth.

God made the universe and the unchangeable laws that govern it. Man can merely discover these laws, and when proved, define them authoritatively, so that the world may believe with confidence.

If it's anything Catholic, Catholic!—P. O. Box 351, ville, N. C.
