Here we are again to bring you the latest news from Shallotte high school before it gets stale.

Tuesday was clean-up day for the school. Windows were cleaned, book cases dusted, floors swept and many other things were done to help the looks of the school. Our home room period was cut out. By Tuesday evening the school building was spic and span.

The new cheer leaders for this year were also elected Tuesday. They are James (Locky) Robbins, Joseph Carter, Patsy Thomas, Marion Galloway, Betty Lou Williams and Mary Frances Hardee. As you see, we have six instead of four this year. With the help of Miss Tencie Frye we think they will do a swell job.

Friday night the Loris Lions defeated the Shallotte Pirates at Loris in a thrilling football game. Both teams brought many spectators to the field. The Shallotte boys are still looking forward to their next game and a chance to change the score.

One of the biggest surprises of the night was the new jerseys. Coach Carmichael kept it a secret until they got to Loris. Then he brought out new purple and silver jerseys for the boys to put on.

Friday morning Mrs. Hewett, our public school music teacher, put on a talent program to get money to buy records for the grammar grades. Among the first grades were 10 students reading from Miss Galloway's room; Joy Lee Stanley singing a solo from Mrs. Stone's room; two students singing a duet from Mrs. White's room. They may be small but they sure can perform. Among the others were a duet, Mrs. Otis Russ' second grade; Faye Thompson and Harvey Russ each singing a solo from the third grade; the class singing a song from Mrs. Galloway's grade; a poem from Miss Keatons 4th grade; a quartet from Miss Johnson's room; a piano solo by Sylvia Lewis from Miss Brightie Holden's fourth grade; a clown, Miss Standland's room; girls singing, Mrs. Sellers' room; Betty Hewett and Shelda Leonard dancing; Gene Chestnut singing "I Never See Maggie Alone" from Mrs. Gelene Russ' room; a song by Miss Butler's class; Darnella and Iris Hewett singing a duet from Mrs. Reese's room; a song "Oh John" from Mrs. Mintz's room; the preacher from Mrs. Farris' room; a clarinet solo by Billy Cashwell, accompanied by Henderson Rourke; a song by Patricia Ann Holden; a stunt and song by Miss Fries 10th grade; and Geraldine Cox singing "Again" from Mrs. Russ's room.

Seen on the camps: The junior boys washing windows . . . Harold Gore misplacing 2 girls pocketbooks . . . Mary Emma Mintz collecting money for the ones going to the ball game on the bus . . . James Robbins announcing on the talent show Friday—and he really did a good job . . . Ada Ensley, a new student, talking with the sophomores . . . The group who went on the bus to the ballgame practicing yells on the way there and back.

We were sorry to hear that Floyd Kirby, Jr., was hurt in the first few minutes of the game Friday night and probably will not be able to play any the rest of the season. He was the full-back for the team. We're crossing our fingers for you, Floyd!

So long until next week, Folks.
