Restaurant Men Catch Food Fish

Fishing here Monday aboard the Idle-On of Captain Hulan Watts, Mike Zefefelis, Wilmington restaurant owner, made one of the biggest food fish catches of the year.

This was in point of total weight, not in number of the fish. Brought in on this trip were 46 kingfish, the smallest weighing not less than 10 pounds and the largest, which was placed on the scales, going to 25 pounds. The average for the 46 fish was probably about 17-pounds each.

In addition to the kingfish the party got 1 large amberjack and 16 bonita, a total of 63 fish, none weighing under 10 pounds.

cer, Johnson Cumbee; active pallbearers were R. K. Sellers, T. R. Bullard, George Walton, Dalton Sellers, Carlton Price, Herbert Swain.

R. A. Membership Hold Programs

Youth Organization At Mt. Olive Baptist Church Recently Observed Interesting Week Of Activity

Focus week was observed at the Mt. Olive Baptist church by the Lottie Moon R. A. Chapter, beginning Sunday November 6. The theme was, "That the World May Know Christ". The R. A. Chapter was in charge of the Sunday morning service. They gave the program and the pastor brought a very interesting missionary message.

They were also in charge of the Wednesday evening prayer service.

On Friday evening the Father-Son banquet was held. Mitchell King was usher and after everyone was seated at their proper place, they sang, "Lord Lay Some Soul On My Heart". The welcome address was by Pat Coleman. The chapter members repeated their watch word, allegiance, commission and declaration and explained their insignia. The prayer was led by Rev. W. R. Morehead. The scripture reading was by Junior Coleman and Eunice McKeithan. A special song was rendered by three of the boys, entitled "A Song to Sing".

"A Lesson in Arithmetic" was brought by Dwight King, "Something to Think About", by Sammie Long; a poem by Junior Long; prayer by Mrs. Jewell McKeithan; a song, "I Gave My Life For Thee".

Guest speaker for the evening was The Rev. Mr. Morehead. His message was greatly enjoyed by all.

After a period of song service, dinner was served. The room was very beautifully decorated. The Chapter colors of royal blue, white and gold were beautifully displayed.

Mrs. Jewell McKeithan is counselor; Mitchell King, Ambassador in Chief; Eunice McKeithan secretary and treasurer.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Powell

Funeral services were held Monday of last week for Mrs. Mary Powell, 69, resident of Shallotte township, who died the preceding Saturday. The services were in charge of Rev. Lester Mintz and Rev. Junius McLamb. Burial was in the Mintz cemetery at Grissettown.

Mrs. Powell's husband died about five years ago. The couple had no children and the only near surviving relatives are a number of nieces and nephews.

Training School Beats Tabor City

Playing their initial game of the season in Southport Tuesday night the Tabor City and Southport negro high school boys put on one of the fastest exhibitions of basketball ever seen on a local court. Southport won, 26 to 9.

The packed gymnasium got a thrill during the first minute of play when Southport broke away to snatch two field goals in whirlwind maneuvers. Things then wavered between the teams until the half when the score stood 10 to 7 for Southport. Halfway into the last quarter substitutes took over for Southport and finished the action.

METHODISTS WILL TRY

(Continued from page one) the past. He declared that where this plan is earnestly entered into by the local church, the results are always very satisfactory. One of the first things for the congregation to do is to understand fully the meaning of visitation evangelism, better understood as comrade evangelism, he said. The official board is backing the pastor in this project and is his message outlining the plan the Rev. Mr. Hayman urged every member of the church to cooperate fully and enthusiastically in this opportunity.

STATE CONVENTION (Continued from page one) special interest at this time. The report on the progress of the campaign to move Wake Forest to Winston-Salem will be of primary interest and the report of the General Board on the Ft. Caswell purchase is a matter of greater interest in this section. It is expected that the Convention will approve the action of the General Board and will also sanction the resolution to borrow $250,000.00, a part of which is to be used for rehabilitation of the Caswell property.

Brunswick county churches plan to be represented by several delegates at this Convention. Delegates from the Southport Baptist church are the Rev. and Mrs. R. K. Redwine, the Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Baker, and Mrs. son McRacken.
