The Pirate Log

By: The Three Buccaneers (Kat, Jan and Peg.)

Hi! How was your report card or should we ruin the whole Pirate Log by asking that?

First let us tell you about something, well, shall we say more popular. Naturally its basketball! Monday night the Shallotte boys and girls took over both Waccamaw teams. The score for the girls was 33 to 20 while the boys took a 58 to 19 victory.

There were quite a number of Block "S" meetings this week. The new members were initiated. The boys wore their coats and shirts backwards while the girls wore their skirts, blouses and coats backwards. There were ribbons in the boys' hair, the girls wore pig-tails, everyone wore different socks, and each new member had a bag of candy to give the old members. This may seem, bad but listen to this: The new members carried a pillow to kneel on when they met the old members during the initiation. They had to say "Praise the Block 'S' club" three times and do everything (in reason) that the old members asked them to do. These things included carrying trays in the cafeteria, carrying books to classes and anything the new members disliked to do. The initiation was Thursday and Friday.

G. T. Scott, State Chairman of UNDA's Production and Marketing Administration Committee, said the potatoes—from the 1949 crop, produced in and now located in Maine and Pennsylvania—are being made available under provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1949.

Agencies and institutions receiving the potatoes, he said, must agree (1) not to reduce their normal expenditures for food, (2) to use the potatoes for food purposes only, and (3) not to sell or trade them. In addition, they must accept delivery at the point of storage, and pay transportation costs.

"Potatoes," Mr. Scott said, "are the first commodity declared available for distribution under provisions of the new legislation. There is nothing new in the fact that we have surplus potatoes. This problem has been with us constantly in recent years. Potato production was increased sharply to meet wartime needs,

Wednesday a very enjoyable talk was made by Rev. Carrol, Methodist minister.

Thursday, Thursday and Friday school turned out early because there was no heat. At first the juniors and seniors thought they were lucky to get the new rooms but now they think they are unlucky. Neither of the rooms have heat and classes are held in the auditorium. Progress is being made, though. This week radiators have been put up and we sure hope they are working soon.

Thursday night both basketball teams went to Bolivia for two exciting games. The Shallotte girls won by a score of 33 to 29. High scorers were Amelia Kirby for the winning team and Sylvia Leonard for the losers. The Bolivia boys won by a 41 to 20 margin with high scorers being Linsay Walton for the Bears and Billy Gray for the Pirates.

Seen Around: Mary Emma Mintz, Betty Ruth Grissett Glenda Sommerest, Juanita Holden, Edna Mintz and Kat Clemmons pretending to be having trouble getting to the gym at Bolivia... Everybody looking for a warm spot in the auditorium... Elmer Dance, Mark Gray, Billy Gray, Jack Robinson and Joseph Carter looking funny with their shirts and coats on backwards during the initiation... The Block "S" members and the football players talking about the football banquet... And the seniors discussing their class will.

So long for this time.

Irish Potatoes For Lunchrooms

Free Spuds Available For Use by School Lunchrooms As Result Of Price Support Operations

Irish potatoes, acquired by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in the course of its supporting operations, are available for distribution to North Carolina's school lunchrooms, both public and private welfare agencies, and state or private elemsynary institutions, it was announced here today.

G. T. Scott, State Chairman of UNDA's Production and Marketing Administration Committee, said the potatoes—from the 1949 crop, produced in and now located in Maine and Pennsylvania—are being made available under provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1949.

Agencies and institutions receiving the potatoes, he said, must agree (1) not to reduce their normal expenditures for food, (2) to use the potatoes for food purposes only, and (3) not to sell or trade them. In addition, they must accept delivery at the point of storage, and pay transportation costs.

"Potatoes," Mr. Scott said, "are the first commodity declared available for distribution under provisions of the new legislation. There is nothing new in the fact that we have surplus potatoes. This problem has been with us constantly in recent years. Potato production was increased sharply to meet wartime needs, and we have had to handle varying degrees of surpluses ever since that special demand began to fall off. "We have been distributing our surplus potato stocks heretofore to school lunch programs, charitable institutions, and other eligible outlets, and have been paying the freight to destination points. This distribution has in the past been financed with what we call Section 32 funds—the 30 percent of annual customers receipts made available for developing new uses and outlets for surplus commodities. Because the Agricultural Act of 1949 requires that Section 32 funds shall be devoted principally to perishable commodities for which price support is not mandatory, it will no longer be possible to make such distribution on a paid-freight basis." Mr. Scott said the act provides that USDA may offer to the outlets listed certain food commodities—acquired through price support—for which there is no potential outlet through normal channels of trade during their storable life.

Mr. Scott said local welfare agencies should direct requests for potatoes to their own state welfare agency. Actual distribution for the state, he said, will be handled by Mr. Jay P. Davis of the North Carolina State Department of Agriculture.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

Why Do They Pick On Mary?

If she had been a hussy, like Jezabel, or a courtesan, like Cleopatra, or a shrewd, scheming old maid, like Queen Elizabeth—if she had been a ruthless tyrant like Catherine of Russia—or just a plain gun-moll such as we used to read about during the twenties—then we might understand why people should speak so unkindly of her. But what did poor Mary do?—unless talking with an archangel is criminal and being Mother to the Son of God is an outrage! After all, that's her only claim to a place in history, the fact that she said Yes to the Blessed Trinity and gave her body to the Lord as His palace where He should clothe Himself in mortal flesh and vest Himself for our redemption.

And because of that, she has been the object of more criticism, more vilification and scolding, during the past 400 years, than any woman in history. It's strange, isn't it?

If you'll take your Bible and look at the First Chapter of St. Luke's Gospel, you'll find that it was God Himself who first honored Mary, by sending an archangel down to her house in Nazareth. "Hail, full of grace", said Gabriel, "the Lord is with thee: Blessed art thou among women. ... Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God" (Luke 1:28).

What do you think of the Mother of Jesus? Is she to be honored, ignored, or dishonored? How do you think Jesus would want you to treat her? For information on other Catholic attitudes, write to: Box 351 Whiteville, N. C.

(How we wish we could have an archangel talk that way to us!)

And then, when Mary called on her cousin, Elizabeth said: "Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the Mother of my Lord should come to me?" (Luke 1:42-43).

Was Jesus God? Of course! ... and Mary was His Mother. Then she must be the Mother of God. Not that she lived before the world was made, but simply that she was the Mother of Jesus, and He was God.

That certainly doesn't make her God. No! And Catholics have never adored Mary; but Catholics love her because Jesus loved her. Wouldn't a man be queer, now, if he didn't love his own Mother? Christ is our example in everything. He spent 30 years of His life with her. She saw many of His miracles, including the very first (which He performed at her request). She was on Calvary when He died. She was with the apostles when the Holy Spirit came on Pentecost.

What do you think of the Mother of Jesus? Is she to be honored, ignored, or dishonored? How do you think Jesus would want you to treat her? For information on other Catholic attitudes, write to: Box 351 Whiteville, N. C.
