Development Of Beach Property To Follow Plan

Those In Charge Of Project Will Not Be Hurried Nor Will They Make Any False Moves In Making Project
Best Possible

U.N.C. PLANNING BOARD HELPING

Parks Commission May Decide To Take Advantage Of Offer To Use Portion Of Beach Area

Interviewed Thursday morning with regard to plans to lay out Long Beach in the manner that a model seacoast resort town should be designed E. F. Middleton, Sr., president of the Income and Home Association Corporation, said definitely that the town or city will be laid out as it should be.

Dr. T. A. Parker and the City and Regional Planning Board of the University of North Carolina will do the planning and supervising. Their work and that of surveying the big 13-mile long tract of land is expected to require some time. Preliminary surveys by the planning board have already been made. The actual planning work will get underway by or before the first of July.

With a considerable part of the long ocean frontage already developed and a paved highway running down it just a block back from the strand, there will be few, if any, important holdups in development along the beach to await the competition of all work by the planning board and surveyors.

If the North Carolina Parks Commission wants it and acts in accordance with its desire before the University Planning Board moves in, a big chunk of beautifully wooded land and beach frontage will be given to the State.
This property is valuable for other things in the general plans of development.

A newsman has been unable to find much noticeable evidence of anxiety over whether the State takes the park area or does not.

Perhaps one reason for failing to find out much more than to take it or leave it attitude towards action by the Parks Commission is the fact that the water frontage part of the area adjoins the Intracoastal waterway at Howell's Point, Lockwoods Folly Inlet, and with the ocean beach

Veteran Tobacco Warehouseman Taken By Death

L. R. Jackson Passes Away At Home Here At Age Of 75; Funeral Held Saturday Afternoon In Raleigh

L. R. Jackson, 75, a tobacco warehouseman in Whiteville for a quarter of a century and a lifetime honorary member of the Tobacco Board of Trade here, died Friday at 4 a. m. at his home on North Franklin Street.

He retired from business two years ago when his health began to fail and his condition gradually grew worse. He had been in serious condition for some time.

The local tobaccoist was born April 7, 1875 in Franklin County, the son of William Daniel and Dora Bothroppe Jackson, but came to Whiteville 25 years ago and became one of the market's better known warehousemen.

He severed his connection with Farmers Warehouse within the past two years.

He was a member of Whiteville Methodist Church.
Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the graveside in Montlawn Cemetery in Raleigh by the Rev.
P. F. Newton, pastor of Whiteville Methodist Church.

Active pallbearers were Ralph Beason, Charlie Tedder, Edward Tyner, Cephus Gore, Dial Gray, A. H. Moore, C. Bion Sears, and W. N. H. Jones, the latter of Raleigh.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs.
Patricia Davis Jackson; a son, Frank W. Jackson of Danville, Va.; a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Wilson of Charlottesville, Va.; a sister Mrs. Alice Uzzell of Louisburg, N. C.; five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Highway Is Asking Bids On River Road

Welfare Head To Report Tomorrow

Edward C. Sexton, case worker in New Hanover county for the past year, becomes superintendent of the Brunswick County Welfare Department tomorrow, June 1.

Resigning some weeks ago to go to Pender county, Miss Frances Coble present case worker and acting superintendent in Brunswick, goes to Pender county on July 1. Mr.
Sexton was secured to succeed her in both positions.

Mr. Sexton was educated at Murray State Normal College in Kentucky and took graduate work at the University of North Carolina. He has worked with the Kentucky welfare department and was a supervisor at the shipyard in Wilmington before joining the New Hanover welfare department.

Numerous Cases Heard Monday

Several Cases Of More Than Usual Importance Disposed Of Before Judge W. J. Mc-Lamb Here In Recorder's Court

On April 24 Loftin Clemmons was brought before Judge W. J.
McLamb on a charge of drunk driving, but the case was continued, and before it came to trial Clemmons was back again Monday on the same charge. He pleaded guilty to both counts but judgement was continued until June 12.

Other cases disposed of included:

John Coleman, Ordon Smith, Leon Smith, Chancey Smith, assault with deadly weapon, motion for jury trial. Bond $250.00 each.
Buddie Stanley, Cornelius Gore, Leon Frink, disturbing the peace.
Buddie Stanley found guilty and prayer for judgment continued.
A not guilty verdict was returned in the case of Cornelius Gore and Leon Frink.

Willie Kiah Lofton, Jr., operating a motor vehicle without license, fined $25.00 and costs.

LAW GOVERNS
THIS PROTECTION

Children Who Plan To Enter School Next Fall Must Be Immunized Against Certain Disease

A series of pre-school immunization clinics has been arranged by the Brunswick county health department beginning Thursday, June 1.

All children entering school next year are urged to complete their immunizations for whooping cough, diphtheria and small pox at this time.

Following is a list of locations and dates of clinics for this purpose: Shallotte pre-school pupils June 1st at 1 p. m. and June 15th at 9 a. m. health department office; Waccamaw pre-school pupils June 8th at 9:30 a. m., Waccamaw school; Longwood preschool pupils, June 7th at 9:30 a. m., Longwood School; Cedar Grove pre-school pupils, June 15th at 1 p. m., Shallotte health department office; La Savannah pre-school pupils, June 7th at 10:45 a. m., La Savannah school; Royal Oak pre-school pupils, June 1st at 3:30 p. m., Royal Oak school;

Those children unable to attend these clinics may receive these necessary immunization any Wednesday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock at the Shallotte health department office.

Frink Nominated For State Senate In First Primary; Mintz For Representative

Legislators

WINNERS—S. B. Frink, left, will represent Brunswick county in the State Senate next session. Harry L. Mintz, Jr., right, won the Democratic nomination and must run against Chas. M. Trott, Republican candidate, in the November General Election.

Southport Attorney Given Clear Majority Over Two Opponents In Saturday
Voting; Bennett And Caison Also Nominated

SECOND PRIMARY
MAY BE CALLED

No Clear Majority For Sheriff; Rabon Is Only Commissioner Candidate With Votes For Majority

S. B. Frink scored a clean-cut majority over his two opponents, Odell Williamson and W.
M. Stanaland, in their three-way battle for the Democratic nomination for State Senator in the Primary Election Saturday. The total vote cast in this contest was 3,640, by far the greatest turn-out of voters in a primary race in the history of Brunswick county politics.

Frink had 1944 votes, Williamson had 1138 and Stanaland had 558.

Perhaps the next greatest amount of interest was centered in the outcome of the battle for the Democratic nomination for sheriff. Ed V. Leonard was high man with a total of 1542 votes.
O. W. Perry was second with 1137, Wayne Evans had 514 and M. R. Tripp received 409. There is a strong possibility of a second primary race here.

Coroner John G. Caison disposed of two opponents with a clear majority. His vote was an even 2200, Joe Wilson had 612 and Dave Garrish had 453.

Sam T. Bennett received a commanding majority over his opponent Elrich V. Hickman in their contest for Democratic nomination for Clerk of Court. Bennett was high man on the ticket with 2453 votes to 979 for Hickman.

Harry L. Mintz, Jr., also had a majority over his opponent for the Democratic nomination for the House, Tom T. Ward. Mintz had 2092 votes to 1361 for Ward.
R. L. Rabon was the only one of the ten candidates for county

Ash Youth Has Knife Wounds

U. G. Williamson Suffered Injury Saturday Afternoon
When Stabbed In Stomach

U. G. Williamson of Ash, brother of Odell Williamson of Shallotte, was brought to the hospital here Saturday afternoon suffering from serious knife wounds in the stomach. He was allegedly cut by Howard Mc-Keithan, also a resident of Ash.

His condition at first was regarded as dangerous but Williamson is now said to be getting along nicely at the Doshier Memorial Hospital.

Constable W. H. Todd and State Highway Patrolman J. C. Pierce arrested McKeithan, charging him with assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill and with the possession of non-tax paid liquor.
Pending the results of Williamson's injuries McKeithan is being held in jail here on the assault with deadly weapon charge.
Bond was set at $1,000.00.
