

Paul Green's symphonic drama, The Lost Colony, will open for its 10th season in Waterside Theatre on Roanoke Island, Saturday night, July 1. There will be 57 performances this season, with each night at 8:15 o'clock except on Mondays. The show has been in full scale rehearsals for several weeks, repairs have been made to the unusual amphitheatre which overlooks Roanoke Sound, and everything is in readiness for the opening of this symphonic drama which is America's first great mystery romance, brought to life on a stage that is located at the actual site of the landing of the colonists sent out from England in 1587, and the birthplace of Virginia Dare, first child of English parentage born in America. The photo layout showing historical marker where English history began in America in center gives an idea of this longest running outdoor production in this nation. Scene at upper left shows the band of 150 brave men and women as they were preparing to leave England for the New World. Sir Walter Raleigh is telling them good bye. Upper right photo shows Sir Walter Raleigh and Eleanor Dare in an informal between rehearsal scene pose. They are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Griffith of Goldsboro. In lower left members of cast take time off to help thatch a cabin roof on the 180 foot stage. The photo at lower right Uppowac, the Indian medicine man, played this year by John Lehman, Raleigh, in a dramatic dance scene. More and more persons are seeing The Lost Colony each year because more and more people are learning that the Dare coastland where the show is presented each year is one of the finest vacation spots along the mid-Atlantic coast. REA — An early advocate of the REA program which since has brought thousands of labor saving appliances and luxuries into the rural homes of North Carolina.

F. E. P. C.—A member of the committee which outlined the controversial F. E. P. C. report, but a member who never was, is not now and will not be in favor of compulsory features of the bill.

Respected—He is the same man whose warm friendship and sincere humility has endeared him to thousands of persons in this State, the South and the Nation; a man whose loyalty and whose purposes never would have been questioned had he not shown the courage to fight for the right to represent his beloved state in the United States Senate.

Brunswick County citizens and the people of North Carolina are justly proud of the manner in which our race relations have been conducted. There is nothing in either his personal nor his official record to indicate that Frank Graham differs from this pattern. No Serious Race Problems Existed Before This Primary, . . . There Is No Serious Problem Now, and As Soon As It Is No Longer Expedient To Use It For A Political Football, The Matter Of Racial Relations No Longer Will Be A Cause Of Alarm Nor A Topic For Discussion.

You Will Be Proud That You Helped Return

Candidate For COUNTY COMMISSIONER

If you will give me your vote and support in the Second Primary Election on Saturday, June 24, I pledge myself, if nominated and elected, to give you two years of honest, conscientious service as a member of the Brunswick County Board of Commissioners.

H. O. PETERSON

Candidate For JUDGE OF RECORDER'S COURT

I appreciate very much the fine support I received in the first primary on May 27th. But, since it was a three-man race I failed to get a clear majority over my two opponents.

For this reason I am in a second race, and I urge all of my friends and supporters to go to the polls Saturday and help me, once more.

If nominated and elected I will do all in my power to be worthy of the confidence placed in me.
