

The Pirate Log

By: The Three Buccaneers (Kat, Jan, & Peg)

Hello there, how are your latest grades suiting you? We guess that we had better not talk about grades though.

Rev. James Carroll conducted the chapel program Tuesday.

Instead of "Jolly Juniors" this week it was "Happy Juniors." You guessed it, they put in the order for their rings. Most of the class ordered red sets. We hope they come real soon.

The basketball girls received their uniforms this week. Those receiving new suits were Amelia Kirby, Mary Emma Tripp, Faye Hewett, Marion Galloway, Geraldine Browning, Betty Lou Gray, Mary Gwen Chadwick, Ida Ruth Galloway, Lois Pigott, Myrna Clemmons, Marie Fulford and Kathleen Clemmons. The first game is November 24 with Chadbourn. It is to be played at Shallotte.

Seen Around: Billy Hewett, Roy Hewett, Jack Robinson and Jimmy Kirby home on leave. Everybody studying for six-week test. The annual staff planning a party. Catherine Stanley arriving early for school. Harold Gore having trouble with the school bus Friday evening. Mrs. McKeithan with a new hair-cut. It looks good, Mrs. Katie Mae. Betty Lou Gray getting left at the gym because she thought there was going to be basketball practice. The junior varsity football boys acting disappointed because their game was put off. This especially included Cletis Clemmons. Billy Cheers limping because of a sprained ankle. This happened during a practice game between the school team and a Waccamaw Independent team. Thomas Gray having to quit football for this year because of a broken finger. The annual staff trying to figure out a way to go to football game and sell ads the same day. Sylvia Sermons, Huey Hewett, Amelia Kirby, Harold Gore and Albert Parker enjoying the football game in Wilmington Friday night. Marion Galloway, Jackie Leonard, Barbara Milligan, Ida Ruth Galloway, Rose Marie Gray and June Caison singing during the noon recess. Faye Hewett, Carol Ann Sellers, Mary Gwen Chadwick, Sylvia Sermons and Betty Ann Hewett sitting together during the show. Barbara Dew and Ramona Osborne talking with Billy Gray in the hall. Marie Fulford and Jeannette Grissett arguing. They weren't mad; it's just a habit. Peggy Clemmons being teased about her "old lady comforts." The basketball girls harmonizing on "Orange Colored Sky" while coming home from practice. The Beta Club reading their Beta Club Journals. And everybody studying real hard. We always study more just before report cards come out.

"Bye" until next week.

High Times

BY: MARY E. LUPTON

Greetings. Guess by now you're right used to having us around. Hope you kinda lok forward to hearing from us, too.

Well, the football news wasn't so good this week, but we can't win them all. Being a good loser is very important, too. Just wait until basketball season and we'll find out if other teams are good losers we hope.

Now a word about the juniors play, "Demons in the dark." They are really putting time and effort in to make it one of the best hair-raiser's ever staged. Seriously, it's the scare of the season with crawling hands and scads of ghosts.

Now the Thanksgiving is in the air we all think of food. Mrs. Lennon and her 5th grade students have a very tempting table in their room.

Seen Around: Coopie Burris and Agnew Fulcher racing to see who can give the most French reports. Ronnie Hood actually studying French. It's a new rule. Mr. Sanders doesn't think we're studying hard enough. Oh! But we are. Billy Dasher, Bobby Cullis, Elliott Hickman and Darrell Fisher complaining to Mr. C. N. Sanders about having to stay up until the wee hours in the morning to study. Karen Swan, Mary Ann Loughlin, Harriet Corlette, Patricia Adams, Bernice Phelps, Lattitia Hickman, Kay Moore, Mary E. Fullwood and several other walking around all week with shaky hands, from typing so much for Mr. Robinson. Gloria Hewett needing a moving van to carry her books and spare sweaters around in. Nancy Swan, Sue Williamson, Tris Rabon, Martha Buckman and Janice Swan talking about taking a 50-question Home Economic test in 10 minutes. The school as a whole really enjoying our friend from Southport, England.

Mrs. Bamber told us last Friday about her Southport, and everyone agreed that she is a very entertaining person. Danny Harrelson taking off for Ohio. Lucky boy!—or he is now. We don't know about the aftermath—in other words the staying in to make up time.

Hope "you all" have a wonderful, well fed Thanksgiving. See you next week.

Der Sir:

I just want to write a note and say I'm very glad to see your column, "Our Roving Reporter" by W. B. Keziah, back in the paper. The Pilot didn't seem right without it.

Sincerely,

Subject: The Roving Reporter
Dear Sir:

It gave me great pleasure along with hundreds of your subscribers to see our good old friend's picture back on the front of The Pilot. I never knew that I would miss anything so much as I did him when he suddenly disappeared from the news of Brunswick County some time ago. I have always looked upon Mr. Kizah as being one of Brunswick's most valuable assets, especially in telling the public of what was going on through out the county.

It is my hope that he will continue with the paper in the same capacity as he has for the past several years. I might also add that he was partly instrumental in my purchasing a home down there, of which I am very proud even though I am forced to live away from home in order to make a living. It is my hope that some day I will be able to go back down there and become a permanent citizen of that community.

Wishing for you and the State Port Pilot continued success, I am

Very Respt Yours,
H. G. Ratcliffe.

PERSONALS

JUNIOR ACCOUNTANT
James O. Sellers has just graduated from a course in Junior accounting at King Business College in Charlotte. He is now taking a course in Senior Accounting. He and Mrs. Sellers have been making their home in Charlotte for some time. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sellers of Supply.

Mrs. W. S. Wells has returned from Florida where she was with her husband while he was engaged in shrimping operations in that State.

Mrs. Susie Carson and daughter, Kathy, spent the past weekend in Fayetteville with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sellers.

wick Baptist Association he has recorded the continuous progress of Baptist work in Brunswick county and has witnessed the organization of several new churches in the Association. During his tenure of office he has been an ardent advocate of missions in his home church and throughout the Association and a main stay of the Associational missionary program begun in Brunswick county four years ago.

Mr. Jenrette is widely known throughout Brunswick County as a farmer interested in keeping up with the new developments constantly being made in crops and farming techniques and has been an active member and leader in all the farm organizations that have existed in Brunswick County during his lifetime. He was a member of the Farmer's Alliance and the Grange, and is currently a member of the Farm Bureau in Brunswick county.

Apart from his work in the churches and farm organizations Mr. Jenrette has served Brunswick county well in several official positions. He was county treasurer at the turn of the century and later became Register of Deeds, serving in this capacity for six years. He has been a member of the Board of Commissioners and chairman of this board.

Mr. Jenrette's appearance belies his eighty-one years and those who know him well believe that his resignation as Clerk of the Brunswick Association means just a change of work and not retirement. In his home church and in the other churches of Brunswick county he will still be a powerful leader in new capacities where there will not be so much figuring and pencil pushing to be done.

THANKSGIVING

This is the season when we give thanks to God for the good things of life, and following in the footsteps of our Pilgrim Fathers we pause tomorrow to add our voice to His praise.

MR 'PRYME' FARMER SAYS:

"It pays off for both of us"

For lasting protection and service, get your farm implements from an authorized dealer!

Mr. "Pryme" Farmer merely says what most farmers know—that it isn't true economy to buy a tractor or an implement from an unknown or doubtful source, or to buy from an unestablished dealer who may not be in business tomorrow. For complete satisfaction, the expectancy of future service must be a part of every sale.

It's just good common sense to patronize your local, established farm equipment dealer. His factory franchise requires that he be ready to provide genuine parts and service and that this service assures greater operating economy and satisfaction from the equipment you buy. Naturally, then, you are dollars ahead if you allow your established dealer to make a reasonable sale and service profit because then you are never without his protection.

Yes, "It pays off for both of us"—full factory protection and trouble-free service for our farmer-customers and a fair return on Sales and Service for us, your established dealers. Choose the brand of implements you prefer, and for safe and economical service, go to your established local dealer—every time.
