we were all able to breath out a great big sigh of relief—the Senior play was over! We don't know if we were sad or happy. A little of both, we guess. There was a lot of work involved, but with every bit of work a little bit of fun drifted in. We realized that was the last play we'd ever give, all together, but before we had time to feel sorry for ourselves we began to talk about class night. There are still a lot more good times left for us to have together, so right now we'll keep looking ahead instead of back.

Before we close we'd like to express our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Ed Weeks.

VISITOR HERE Mrs. Marion S. Doshier, former home demonstration agent for Brunswick county, who has been convalescing at her home in Fayetteville from injuries sustained in an automobile accident last fall, was a visitor here Saturday. Friends who saw here were delighted with the rapid progress she has made toward complete recovery.

High Times

By STUART ARRINGTON

Yesterday morning, coming down the stair I saw a man who wasn't there. He wasn't there again today. I certainly wish he'd go away!

Well, we're not exactly that crazy yet, but it gives you a pretty good idea of how all this beautiful spring weather is affecting us. People who study are becoming as rare as hen's teeth. But who can concentrate on books when there's a cute little fox squirrel running up and down the tree right outside of the study hall window or when the birds all get together and try to out-sing our glee club?

Speaking of the glee club reminds us that its almost time for our glee club recital. The date scheduled is for April 28. In spite of a lot of interference with class time we've all been practicing hard on a lot of good songs, so the program should be well worth coming to. Mr. Pittenger has been trying to work up a boys' quartet, and from the sound of things the other day we think he's worked up a pretty good one.

Last Thursday afternoon we seniors let out a half-sigh of relief and said "Just One More Performance." Then Friday night

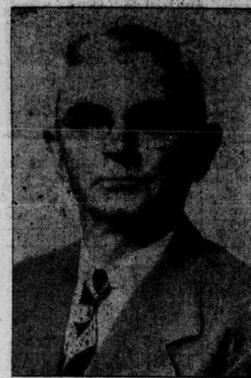

That's the first game our team has lost, so we're still plenty proud of them. It wouldn't be much sport if we knew we were going to win every time. But one game is enough to lose — so dust up the rabbits foot and start shining again.

One weekend brings all our old friends home, and the next seems to take them all away. Elliott Hickman left the states last Saturday for a 4 to 6 months cruise in Europe. Billy McDowell didn't leave the states, but camping ground is Tucson, Arizona. And if he knew how much trouble we had trying to spell that name, he'd never have gone way out there.

The Junior Class now has a new pupil. His name is Ed Lindner from Long Island, New York. We might lose a lot of old friends to those far away states, but we also gain some new ones. We hope you'll like Southport High as much as we do, Ed.

Seen Around — Ritchie Doshier hunting for a lost book . . . . . Dog Watts walking around with a walking cane in his hand . . . . . Karen Swan and Harriett Corlette sweeping the stage . . . . . Libby Caster and Trudy McNeil saying over and over that they're glad they've got T. B. and not just a bad cold . . . . . Janice Trunnell taking her usual stroll to the dentist office . . . . . Jerry Spencer and Agnew Fulcher discussing the meaning of different songs . . . . . Mr. Pittenger wishing he had a private music room . . . . . Joe Young sporting around in a new pair of shoes . . . . . Agnew Fulcher busy reading westerns . . . . . Latitia Hickman

I THANK YOU....

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Democratic Party in Brunswick County for their confidence in me. I am deeply grateful for the honor of being your nominee for the office of Register of Deeds in the General Election in November.

I realize that to have received this nomination without opposition imposes an even greater responsibility on my shoulders. I shall do all in my power to justify this confidence.
